140th Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA.

TUESDAY, MAY 6, 1924.

The One Hundred and Fortieth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled by appointment as above at 9.30 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. Thomas James Garland, DD., D.C.L., assisted by the Rev. J. DeWolf Perry, D.D., the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, S.T.D., the Rev. F. M. Taitt, S.T.D., and the Rev. Richard J. Morris.

The Bishop read the names of those who have died during the past Convention Year, with a special claim on our prayers

Of Bishops of the Church:

Alexander Charles Garrett, Presiding Bishop

Granville Hudson Sherwood — Edward Arthur Temple
Edwin Gardner Weed — Frederic William Keator
George Coolidge Hunting — Charles Tyler Olmsted

Of Priests of this Diocese:

Arthur Goffe Coombs — Alfred Edward Macnamara
Robert Magee Beckett — John Kennedy Moorhouse
James Hart Lamb — Harry Keppele Bunting Ogle
Samuel Upjohn

Of Deputies to the last Convention:

Charles Biddle — Charles Francis Gummey
William Hopkins — William Henry Morris
George Chandler Paul — Benjamin Frank Waldron
John Thomas Young

Of Deputies to former Conventions:

George S. Clark — Fergus Elliott
Archibald R. Montgomery — James Cheston Morris
William Heywood Myers — Albert A. Roop
William Patton — Morris Wister Stroud, Jr.
Francis Lea Porteus — William Austin McEwen

The Lord grant unto them that they may find mercy of the Lord in that day.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and may light perpetual shine upon them.

The offering was for Diocesan Missions, amounting to $26.75.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 10.45 A. M. and, a quorum being present, proceeded to business.

The Order of the Day being the election of a Secretary, the Rev. L. N. Caley nominated the Rev. Richard J. Morris.

On motion, the nominations were closed and the President, having cast the ballot, declared Mr. Morris duly elected.

The Secretary appointed as Assistant Secretary

the Rev. Charles S. Lyons.

The Convention confirmed the appointment.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. N. V. P. Levis, D.D. — The Rev. C. H. Reese.
The Rev. J. M. Collins.

Claims of Laity to Seats:

Mr. C. L. Harper. — Mr. H. H. Bonnell
Mr. Louis Dalmas.

Nominations for Offices to be filled by the Convention being in order, the Secretary read a list of those Parishes which have not qualified to vote under the provisions of the Constitution, as follows:

Parishes which have not returned Certificates of Deputies: S. Paul, Doylestown; S. James, Dowingtown; S. Luke, Chadd's Ford; S. John, Lansdowne; Calvary, Rockdale; Holy Nativity, Rockledge; Annunciation, Philadelphia; S. Mary, Philadelphia; S. Paul, Overbrook.

Parishes which have not paid Assessments for 1923: S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia; S. James, Hestonville.

Parishes which have sent no Parochial Report for 1923: S. James, Perkiomen; S. Mary, Wayne; Atonement, Philadelphia; Calvary, Northern Liberties; Holy Innocents, Tacony; S. James the Less, Philadelphia; S. John Chrysostom, Philadelphia.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the right of Representation of the above Parishes in this Convention be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such right of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and, that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

The Secretary read a list of Nominations which have been received as follows: Commission on Clerical Salaries as elected (p. 38); Trustees of the Diocese as elected (p. 38); Executive Council as balloted on (pp. 49, 50).

The following were nominated from the floor: Board of Triers, Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, Deputies to Provincial Synod, Trustees of the Christmas Fund, all as elected (p. 38). Also Standing Committee of the Diocese as balloted for (p. 48), together with the Rev. G. H. Toop, who withdrew his name; Mr. R. F. Wood also withdrew his name.

The President announced the Committee on Elections as follows:

The Rev. S. L. Gilberson, Chairman	Mr. R. D. Brown
The Rev. E. G. Knight	Mr. F. H. Longshore

The Secretary announced that boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies would be found in the vestibule of the Church.

The Rev. L. N. Caley presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title as far as possible. And all through the Convention Resolutions to discharge Committees from further consideration of the subject be omitted, it being understood that they are so discharged unless the Convention recommit the matter to their further consideration, or unless the work of the Committee is unfinished.

Your Committee further recommends that Section III of the Standing Orders of the Convention, which calls for an Evening Session of the Convention to be held the first day to receive the Report of the Board of Missions, be suspended for this Convention.

L. N. CALEY, GEORGE HALL,
G. E. PEMBER, A. D. PARKER,
C. R. WOODRUFF.

The recommendation concerning the Evening Session was adopted.

The Report as a whole was adopted.

The Rev. T. L. Gossling presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS

together with the assignment of pews, which was adopted.

The Committee reported further:

The matter of installing electrical aids to hearing in the Convention was considered, but the cost proving excessive in the opinion of the Committee ($400 for two days) and a permanent installation being impracticable on account of the impossibility of private individuals obtaining a suitable microphone, it was recommended that the matter be postponed until next year when rapidly changing conditions in the electrical industry may make a permanent installation possible.

T. L. GOSSLING, J. O. MCILHENNY, GEORGE HALL.

The Secretary reported as Unfinished Business from the Convention of 1923 the following:

1. Amendment to Article IV, Par. 2, of the Constitution in re Representation of Missions in the Convention.
2. Report of Committee on Financing Cathedral Enterprises.
3. Report of Committee on Standing Order VI, "On Elections."

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

CANON II, SECTION VI. Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of this Convention.

Mr. G. B. Hawkes offered an Amendment to Canon IX, Sect. III, which was referred to the Committee on Canons (see p. 58).

The Rev. H. M. G. Huff offered an Amendment to Canon VI, which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Mr. Morris Earle presented a Resolution in re Church Music, which was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business (see p. 60).

The Committee on Claims of Clergy to Seats had no Report to make.

The Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats were not ready to report.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, for the

COMMITTEE ON CANONS

presented the Amendment to the Constitution for final action, which was approved by the Convention of 1923, as follows:

> At the end of Paragraph 2, of Article IV of the Constitution, add the following paragraph:
> "A Parochial or a canonically established and organized Mission of this Diocese, having one hundred or more baptized persons of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, worshippers in said Mission, who for one year or more immediately preceding the time of computation shall have been registered and regular contributors to the support of said Mission, may send to the Convention one Lay Deputy, who shall have all the rights of other Deputies, except the right to vote."

The Rev. H. S. Hathaway objected that no Quorum had been present on the first passage of the Amendment in 1923, and that therefore it could not be presented for final adoption at this time.

The Chair ruled that completed action on the part of the last Convention could not be questioned at this Convention, and that the Amendment could therefore be properly presented.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution:

Resolved, That this Convention approve the Amendment to Article IV, Paragraph 2, of the Constitution, which was approved by the last Annual Convention.

The Rev. G. C. Carter offered the following Amendment:

Resolved, That the Amendment to the Constitution be amended by striking out the first three words, "A Parochial or."

The Order of the Day having arrived, it was Resolved, That the Nominations be closed and that the Secretary be instructed to cast the ballot for all those Offices for which only the requisite number of Nominations had been made.

The Secretary having cast the necessary ballot, the President declared elected the following:

Commission on Clerical Salaries

THE REV. G. G. BARTLETT, S.T.D.
THE REV. F. C. HARTSHORNE
THE REV. G. E. PEMBER
MR. W. P. BARBA
MR. C. C. BRINTON
MR. N. H. DAVIS
MR. L. J. MORRIS
MR. W. B. READ

Trustees of the Diocese

THE REV. W. J. COX
THE REV. N. V. P. LEVIS, D.D.
THE REV. L. C. WASHBURN, S.T.D.
MR. J. B. TOWNSEND
MR. R. D. BROWN
MR. J. H. COATES
MR. R. A. MORGAN

The Lay Deputies confirmed the election of the Trustees of the Diocese.

Board of Triers

THE REV. L. M. ROBINSON, S.T.D., D.C.L.

Trustees of the Episcopal Fund

MR. J. A. HARRIS, JR.
MR. F. A. LEWIS
MR. C. S. W. PACKARD
MR. CHARLTON YARNALL

Deputies of the Provincial Synod

THE REV. W. J. COX
DR. W. L. TAYLOR

Trustees of the Christmas Fund

DR. CASPAR W. MORRIS

The Order of the Day having arrived, the President bade to Convention to noon-day prayers.

Action reverting to the Amendment to the Constitution, the President asked that as a matter of personal privilege he be allowed to state that in ruling as he did he was not expressing a personal decision, but only the decision of the last Annual Convention as recorded in the Minutes of the same.

A motion to lay the Amendment on the table was lost.

THE COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS

offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That inasmuch as the Parishes of S. James the Less; S. James, Perkiomen; Atonement, Philadelphia; and S. Mary, Wayne, have submitted Annual Parochial Reports, their right to representation in this Convention be restored.

Action reverting to the Amendment to the Constitution, the Rev. G. C. Carter withdrew his Amendment.

The Amendment to Article IV, Paragraph 2, of the Constitution was lost on a Vote by Orders: Clerical Vote, Ayes 59, Noes 90; Parish Vote, Ayes 26, Noes 68.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Standing Committee requested permission to present the Annual Report at a later time, the Secretary being absent.

The Executive Secretary presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

(Appendix G, p. 286)

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the

REPORT OF THE BUDGET COMMITTEE

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Executive Council be authorized to prepare the Budget for 1925 on the April basis of the 1924 Budget as to form, scope and amount, with such changes as are necessary to meet the conditions existing in the autumn.

The Rev. P. R. Stockman presented the REPORT OF THE QUOTA COMMITTEE

and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

(1) Resolved, That the Finance Department of the Executive Council through its Quota Committee be authorized to transmit to the Parishes and Missions a schedule of Quotas for Priorities for 1925 in relation to a total sum not to exceed $50,000, to be equally divided between objects on the Priority List within the Diocese, and those of the General Church. In this connection it is recommended that those Parishes which do not meet their Quotas for Maintenance shall not be allotted a Quota for Priorities.

(2) Resolved, That the Quota Committee be authorized to transmit to the Parishes and Missions Quotas for Maintenance as may be required by the Diocesan and General Church Budgets for 1925, according to the method used in relation to the Quotas for 1924.

(3) Resolved, That the Convention call upon every Parish and Mission to do its utmost to exceed the indicated expectation for its extra-parochial givings to apply on the Maintenance of the Diocesan and General Church Budgets for 1924; and that the method in use by some Parishes of designating particular missionary work or workers on the Maintenance Budget, to be supported by their extra-parochial contributions, be carried out as widely as possible.

The Rev. L. C. Washburn presented the

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PENSIONS

(Appendix G, p. 286.)

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania endorses the action of its Pension Department in urging the Trustees of the Pension Fund to so amend their rules as to provide a gratuity to the widow of every Clergyman identified with the system.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, for

THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

presented the Report as follows:

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Canon IV, Section III, proposed by the Executive Council, as follows:

> Repeal Section III of Canon IV, and substitute the following:
> Sec. III. The Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions.
> 1. There shall be a Commission of the Diocese to be known as "The Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions," consisting of three Clergymen and five Laymen, who shall be elected by the Convention every three years, beginning with 1924, for three years. The Commission shall have power to fill vacancies in its membership, and may also, at its discretion, elect additional members, but not to exceed one Clergymen and two Laymen.
> 2. The Commission shall administer the Sustentation Fund, as provided for in Canon VII, Section VI. It shall also act as the Church Pension Fund Committee of the Diocese, as provided for in Canon VII, Section VII. It shall make an annual report to the Convention upon its work.
> 3. The Lay members of the Commission shall confer with the Vestries and Advisory Committees of Parishes and Missions which are paying less than the minimum salaries, with the purpose of stimulating increased payments.

respectfully report that they have examined the proposed Amendment and find that it does not conflict with any of the provisions of the Constitution, and recommend its adoption.

By order of the Committee,
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

On motion, the proposed Amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Canon VI, Section II, Paragraph 2, proposed by the Executive Council, as follows:

> In Canon VI, Section II, Paragraph 2, eliminate the words, "The Department of Church Pensions."

respectfully report that they have examined the proposed Amendment and find that it does not conflict with any of the provisions of the Constitution, and recommend its adoption.

By order of the Committee,
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

On motion, the Amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Canon VII, Section VI, proposed by the Executive Council, as follows:

> In Canon VII, Section VI, wherever the words, "Commission on Clerical Salaries" occur, substitute for them, "Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions."

respectfully report that they have examined the proposed Amendment and find that it does not conflict with any of the provisions of the Constitution, and recommend its adoption.

By order of the Committee,
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

On motion, the Amendment was adopted.
Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Canon VII, Section VII, proposed by the Executive Council, as follows:

> In Canon VII, Section VII, wherever the words, "Department of Church Pensions of the Executive Council" occur, substitute for them, "Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions."

respectfully report that they have examined the proposed Amendment, and find that it does not conflict with any of the provisions of the Constitution, and recommend its adoption.

By order of the Committee,
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

On motion, the Amendment was adopted.
Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Canon IX, Section IV, Paragraph 4, proposed by the Executive Council, as follows:

> In Canon IX, Section IV, Paragraph 4, change the words, "Commission on Clerical Salaries" to "Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions."

respectfully report that they have examined the proposed Amendment, and find that it does not conflict with any of the provisions of the Constitution, and recommend its adoption.

By order of the Committee,
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

On motion, the Amendment was adopted.
Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Canon VII, Section VI, proposed by the Executive Council, as follows:

In Canon VII, Section VI, repeal the whole Section and substitute:

Section VI. The Sustentation Fund.

1. The Convention shall from time to time, by standing resolution, establish schedules of the minimum salaries to be received by Rectors and Missionaries, and by other Clergymen in the direct employ of the Diocese.

2. For the purpose of augmenting to the minima, as established above, the salaries of Rectors whose Parishes are unable to pay those amounts, there shall be established and maintained a fund to be called, "The Sustentation Fund."

3. The said Fund shall be administered by the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions. The Commission shall present to each Annual Convention an estimate of the amount that will be needed in the next calendar year for the purpose of augmenting the salaries of Rectors as above provided, and for covering the Pension Fund Premiums on the several amounts paid; and for making such payments of Pension Fund Premiums as may be necessary to prevent the occurrence of such arrearages in Pension Fund Premiums in the Diocese as might prevent the Clergy, or their widows and children, from receiving the benefits they should receive from the Church Pension Fund. Said total amount, when approved by the Convention, shall be apportioned among the Parishes in union with the Convention in the same manner as is prescribed for the apportionment of the Episcopal Fund.

4. The Treasurer of the Diocese shall be the Treasurer of the Sustentation Fund.

5. The Treasurer shall, upon recommendation of said Commission, make payments to augment the salaries of Rectors of Parishes to amounts not exceeding the minima fixed by the Convention. He shall also, upon like recommendation, make the payments of Pension Fund Premiums above provided for.

6. The said Commission may, at its discretion, withhold any of the payments above provided for, in individual cases; Provided, that whenever such payments are withheld without the consent of the parties affected, the Commission shall state the facts in its annual report of the Convention.

7. Any Annual Convention, upon recommendation of the Commission, may suspend the right of representation in the Diocesan Convention of any Parish failing to pay its Rector the minimum salary fixed by the Convention; such suspension to continue until terminated by the Convention itself.

respectfully report that they have examined the proposed Amendment, and find that it does not conflict with any of the provisions of the Constitution, and recommended its adoption.

By order of the Committee,
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

On motion, the Amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Canon XII, proposed by the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, as follows:

In Canon XII, at the end of Section IV, add the words, "except where the Rector is or becomes entitled to more than $1500 and rectory."

respectfully report that they have examined the proposed Amendment and that at their suggestion the Proposer submits the Amendment in the following form, whose adoption they recommend.

In Canon XII, Section IV, repeal all that follows the word "organization" in line 6, and substitute therefor the following:

"and with the Standing Committee a written guarantee, signed by responsible persons, and good for three years, that the new Parish will, without assistance from any Diocesan Fund, pay its Rector at least the minimum salary to which he shall be entitled under the Canons; Provided, however, that the undertaking of said guarantors shall not in any case be held to extend beyond guaranteeing that the Parish will provide $1500 and a Rectory."

By order of the Committee,
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

On motion the Amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report, submitting the Amendment to Canon VI, Section I, Paragraph 5, proposed by the Rev. C. E. Eder, and stating that Mr. Eder had accepted a Substitute suggested by the Committee (see p. 54).

On motion by Mr. C. R. Woodruff, consideration of the same was postponed.

The polls were declared open from 2 to 2.45 P. M.

The Convention took a Recess until 2.45 P. M.

RICHARD J. MORRIS, Secretary.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

TUESDAY, MAY 6, 1924, 2.50 P. M.

The Convention reassembled as above, the Bishop in the Chair.

The Secretary reported that S. Paul, Overbrook, had sent in a Certificate for Lay Deputies and that Calvary, Northern Liberties had sent in a Parochial Report.

On motion, these Parishes were restored to Representation in this Convention.

The Assistant Treasurer stated that certain exceptional circumstances accounted for the failure of S. James, Hestonville, to pay the Assessments, and, on motion, this Parish was restored to Representation in this Convention.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop of the Diocese read his Annual Address (see Appendix A, p. 68). (For Diary of Bishop Rhinelander (see Appendix B, p. 123).

The Rev. Z. B. T. Phillips offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the portion of the Bishop's Address referring to provisions in the Canons and Standing Orders be referred to the Committee on Canons to report to the next Convention.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

was presented by Title. (Appendix Q, p. 347.)

After a short Service, conducted by the Rev. F. M. Taitt, S.T.D., the following speakers addressed the Convention:

The Rev. C. E. Spalding, on Country Work.
The Rev. H. C. McHenry, on City Work.
The Rev. H. L. Phillips, D.D., on Colored Work.
The Rev. Elliot White, on Work among Foreign-Born.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Rev. P. R. Stockman offered the following Preamble and Resolutions:

WHEREAS, Many are claiming the right to disobey and to encourage others to disobey the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and the laws enacted in its support; and,

WHEREAS, Such action is subversive of all law, is a great danger to all government, is particularly menacing to the younger generation, and is morally indefensible;

Therefore be it Resolved by this 140th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, that,

(1) It is the clear duty of every member of the Church to observe these laws, whether approving them or not, and to support the effort of all those in authority who are responsible for their enforcement; and that,

(2) The Mayor of Philadelphia and the Director of Public Safety and all other public officials within the Diocese of Pennsylvania who are endeavoring to enforce and support these laws be commended for their effort;

And be it further Resolved that,

(a) Copies of these resolutions be printed and sent to our parochial clergy in numbers sufficient for distribution among their several congregations; and, the clergy be requested to read the same at a morning and evening service, and to preach on the subject; and that,

(b) The Executive Council be and hereby is instructed to take such steps as it may think helpful towards carrying out the purpose of these resolutions, and to report at the next Convention.

Mr. John Cadwalader rose to a Point of Order, that he had offered a Resolution to Lay the Resolutions on the Table.

The Chair ruled that such a Resolution could not be offered at this time.

After speaking to the Resolutions, Mr. Stockman yielded the floor to the Rev. C. E. Grammer, as seconder of the Resolutions.

Mr. John Cadwalader offered a Resolution to Lay the Resolutions on the Table.

On a Vote by Orders, the Resolution was lost: Clerical vote, Ayes, 34; Noes, 88; Parish vote, Ayes, 22; Noes, 50.

The President explained his decision in re motions to Lay on the Table, as based on Roberts' and Cushing's Manuals.

Resolved, That the Second Ballot be taken when the time for adjournment is reached.

Mr. J. A. Harris, Jr., and Mr. L. J. Morris withdrew their names as Nominees for the Executive Council.

Action reverting to the Resolutions on Law Observance, Mr. L. J. Morris offered the following Amendment, which was lost:

Resolved, That in view of the increasing disregard of all law, this Convention appeals to the conscience of each member of the Church to consider his duty as a consistent member and as a citizen; and urges their aroused effort to curb all lawlessness by personal example, and to discountenance violations by others, but without prejudice to, or endorsement of their individual right to work in all lawful ways for repeal or amendment of any law.

*Nominated by the Bishop and Standing Committee.

The Resolutions were adopted, on division; Ayes, 162; Noes, 64.

The Rev. W. A. Matos desired that his name be recorded as voting against the adoption of the Resolutions.

On motion, the Resolution of the Rev. L. N. Caley, as above, was reconsidered.

Mr. R. D. Brown offered the following Substitute, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Second Ballot be taken immediately after the reading of the Rough Minutes on Wednesday morning.

The Convention took a Recess at 5.35 P. M., until 9.30 A. M. on Wednesday, May 7th.

RICHARD J. MORRIS, Secretary.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

WEDNESDAY, MAY 7, 1924, 9.30 A. M.

The Convention reassembled as above, the Bishop in the Chair.

The Rough Minutes were read and approved.

The Committee on Election presented an additional Report, stating that Mr. L. J. Morris had received the concurrent vote of both Orders on the first and second choice for Lay Members of the Executive Council on the first ballot.

The President declared that Mr. L. J. Morris is elected.

The Polls were declared open from 10 to 10.15 A. M.

The Convention took a Recess at 10 A. M.

The Convention reassembled at 10.15 A. M., the Bishop in the Chair.

Telegrams were received (1) of fraternal greeting from the Annual Convention of the Diocese of New Jersey; (2) from the Bishop of Missouri, in re the Bishop Tuttle Memorial Fund.

The Secretary was instructed to send acknowledgment and good wishes to the Diocese of New Jersey.

The Rev. W. A. Matos offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Amendment to Canon IV, Section III, which was adopted on Tuesday, be reconsidered.

The Amendment was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business (see p. 61).

Mr. C. L. S. Tingley offered an Amendment to Standing Order VI, which was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business.

The Rev. L. N. Caley for the COMMITTEE ON DISPATCH OF BUSINESS, presented the Amended Order of Business for the Day, which was adopted.

The Rev. W. C. Pugh presented the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

To the One Hundred and Fortieth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Committee on Charters respectfully reports that it met on April 28, 1924, at the call of the Convener, the Rev. J. O. McIlhenny, and organized by the election of the Rev. J. O. McIlhenny as Chairman and the Rev. Walter C. Pugh as Secretary.

The Committee considered the application of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Elisabeth's Church," Philadelphia, for approval to an amendment to their Charter striking out the word "male" as a qualification for Vestrymen in Article Four of the Charter.

The proposed Amendment has been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, but the Committee on Charters finds that it does not make the Charter to conform substantially with the approved Form of Charter in the following respects, viz.:

(1) There is no provision for the perpetual existence of the Corporation; (2) The title has not been changed to indicate that the Corporation consists of the members of the Church, rather than of the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen; (3) The words "baptized and confirmed" are not used as qualifications of the "Lay members of the Protestant Episcopal Church" who compose the Vestry; (4) At a meeting of the Vestry the Charter provides that "The Rector, if present, may preside, and in all matters, except such as concern the property of the Corporation, shall be entitled, in common with the several members of the Vestry to one vote."

The Committee on Charters, therefore, offers this report for the consideration of the Convention, but without a resolution thereon.

By order of the Committee,

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Rev. Frederick Ward offered the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the application of the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Elisabeth's Church, for amendment of their Charter, by striking out the word "male" in the fourth line of Article IV, be approved by the Convention.

Mr. Harold Goodwin offered the following Amendment:

Resolved, That the following words be added to the Resolution: "provided that the other Amendments suggested by the Committee on Charters be incorporated."

Mr. Ward accepted the Amendment, and the Resolution, as amended, was adopted.

Mr. Pugh continued the Report.

The Committee on Charters further reports that it has considered the application of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church of Saint Asaph," Bala, for the approval of an amendment to their Charter increasing the number of the Vestrymen from nine to twelve.

The application has been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, but the Committee on Charters finds that it does not make the Charter to conform substantially with the approved Form of Charter in the following respects, viz.:

(1) The title of the Corporation is "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church of Saint Asaph"; (2) The words "baptized and confirmed" are not used to qualify the "Lay members of the Protestant Episcopal Church" who compose the Vestry.

The Committee on Charters, therefore, offers this report for the consideration of the Convention, but without resolution thereon.

By order of the Committee,

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Rev. B. N. Bird offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the application of the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestry of the Church of S. Asaph, for amendment to their Charter, increasing the number of their Vestrymen from nine to twelve be approved by this Convention, provided that the other amendments suggested by the Committee on Charters be incorporated.

The Secretary presented a Preamble and Resolution sent in by a resident of Lansdowne, which was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, for the

offered the Amendment to Canon VI, Section I, (p. 48) as follows:

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment proposed by the Rev. C. E. Eder, as follows:

"That Canon VI, Section I, Paragraph 5, be amended to read:

"Until successors are elected or appointed, provided that, no Clergyman or Layman shall be eligible to be elected or appointed, as provided for in the three foregoing paragraphs, for more than three successive years; excepting as provided in the following paragraph:

(Paragraph 6)

"In order that the provision made in Paragraph 5 may not disrupt the established organization of the Executive Council by depriving it at one time of all those who may be elected or appointed in the usual manner for the Convention Year 1924-1925; it shall be further provided that after the organization of the new Council, following the adoption of this amendment, those members whose terms of office would be governed by the principle of rotation shall divide themselves by lot into three classes as nearly equal as possible in number, members of the first class to become ineligible for election or appointment with the expiration of their service in 1925; members of the second class, should their term continue until 1926, to be ineligible for election or appointment after the term ending in that year; members of the third class, should their term continue until 1927, to be ineligible for election or appointment after the term ending in that year."

respectfully report that at their suggestion the Proposer has agreed to submit the proposition in the following form, which the Committee submit without recommendation or prejudice:

Amend Canon VI, Section I, by adding the two following paragraphs, 5 and 6, and renumbering the succeeding paragraphs:

"5. No Clergyman or Layman shall be eligible for election or appointment to membership in the Council for more than three years in succession, except as hereinafter provided for. After the lapse of one year eligibility thus lost shall be restored."

"6. At the organization of the Council in June, 1924, those who have been members during the two years immediately preceding shall divide themselves by lot into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible. The members of the first class shall be ineligible for re-election or re-appointment in 1925, but the members of the second and third classes shall not become ineligible before 1926 and 1927 respectively."

Resolved, That the changes take effect June 10, 1924.

By order of the Committee,

F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The Amendment was adopted.

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Canon II, Section 6, proposed by the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, as follows:

Amend Canon II, Section VI, by adding the following words:

"and the Executive Secretary of the Diocese, the Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, Chancellor, Commissary, and > Church Advocate shall be entitled, ex-officio, to all the privileges of Deputies to the Convention, except the right to vote."

respectfully report that they have examined the proposed Amendment and recommend its adoption with the omission of the word "and" at the beginning, as Section V of Canon II, the Sections following to be renumbered.

By order of the Committee,

F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The Amendment was adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Canon IX, Section 3, proposed by Mr. G. B. Hawkes, as follows:

> Amend Canon IX, Section III, Sub-Section 1 (b) to read as follows:
> "(b) The Lay Deputies to the Diocesan Convention from the Parishes within the Convocation. Provided, That any such Parish shall have the right to send to the Convocation in place of its Lay Deputies a Lay Delegate or Delegates not exceeding three in number, Communicants of this Church, elected by the Vestry or members of the Congregation, entitled to vote for Vestrymen, from the Vestry or from the Congregation."

respectfully report that they have examined the proposed Amendment and recommend its adoption.

By order of the Committee,

F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The Amendment was adopted.

The Order of the Day having arrived, Mr. W. P. Barba read the

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

(Appendix E, p. 262)

together with the following Resolution, which had been adopted by the Standing Committee:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Residence Fund be and they are hereby authorized to loan to the Treasurer of the Diocese, who is hereby authorized to borrow from the said Trustees, a sum not exceeding Ten Thousand Dollars for the purpose of making repairs and alterations to the Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial House required to condition the same for use as the Episcopal residence; said amount to be returned to said Fund in approximately five years from balances to the credit of the Episcopal Fund.

On motion, the Report was ordered received and the action of the Standing Committee was ratified.

Mr. Barba presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE

(Appendix F, p. 271)

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Rev. Z. B. T. Phillips presented the

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania desire to express their deep appreciation for the splendid Lenten Offering from the Sunday Schools of the Diocese.

The Order of the Day having arrived, Mr. Morris Earle presented the following Preamble and Resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, At the present time there is needed a more extended recognition of the value of music in Church worship, and

WHEREAS, There is a desire upon the part of Church organists and choirmasters to render free service to the people of our Diocesan Institutions and Associations, and

WHEREAS, There is a need of a Diocesan Organization to co-operate with the musicians of our Church in their efforts to serve the Church,

Therefore be it Resolved, That a Commission on Music consisting of six clergy and nine laymen, six of whom shall be organists, be appointed by the Bishop to organize and put into effect a voluntary service of Organists and Choirs for the advancement of Christian Social Service in the Diocese, and to report its results at the next Convention.

The President bade the Convention to noon-day prayers.

The Church of The Holy Innocents, Tacony, having sent in a Parochial Report, that Parish was restored to Representation in this Convention.

The Rev. H. S. Hathaway offered an Amendment to the Standing Rules of Order, which was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business (see p. 65).

The matter of the election of Lay Canons of the Cathedral Chapter, in accordance with Canon XVI, Section VII, having arisen, the Canon was declared inoperative until the formal acceptance required has been filed by the officers of the Chapter.

The Rev. L. M. Robinson offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the President appoint a Committee, consisting of three Clergymen and three Laymen, to consider and report at the next Convention concerning the proposed Amendments to the Book of Common Prayer, which have been referred to this Convention by Resolution of the General Convention and which are printed as Appendix Q of the JOURNAL of the Diocese for 1923.

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention has heard with pleasure the statement that the Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania have adopted the policy of employing a responsible Trust Company to have the custody of its securities.

Resolved Further, That it is the sense of this Convention that the said Trustees should adopt as a permanent policy the employment of a Trust Company for such purpose.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON FAITH AND ORDER

and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That a special Committee of five Clergymen and five Laymen be appointed by the Bishop to act in this Diocese in co-operation with the National Commission on Faith and Order.

Resolved, That the Convention approves and earnestly recommends to the Clergy and people of the Diocese due observances of the Octave of Prayer, June 1st to 8th.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Amendment to the Constitution for approval to lie over to the next Convention:

> Amend Article IV, Paragraph 2, of the Constitution by adding the following:
>
> "A canonically established and organized Mission of this Diocese having one hundred or more baptized persons of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, worshipers in said Mission, who for one year or more immediately preceding the time of computation shall have been registered and regular contributors to the support of said Mission, may send to the Convention one Lay Deputy, who shall have all the rights of Deputies, except the right to vote."

The Rev. R. B. Green offered the following Amendment, which was adopted:

> In line 2 substitute the word "confirmed" for the word "baptized."

The Resolution for the adoption of the Amendment to the Constitution, resulting in a tie vote, on division—Ayes, 95; Noes 95—was lost on a Vote by Orders: Clerical vote, Ayes, 57; Noes, 46; Parish Vote, Ayes, 23; Noes, 40.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the changes in Canons IV, VI and VII, adopted yesterday and today, shall go into effect at once and that those elected under the existing Canon as Members of the Commission on Clerical Salaries shall be considered as elected to serve under the Amended Canon as Members of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions.

offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the changes in Canon II, giving privileges of Deputies to Officials of the Diocese, adopted this morning, take effect at once.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the Report of the

COMMISSION ON CLERICAL SALARIES

(Appendix N, p. 320)

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions to authorized to apportion to the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese a sum not exceeding $20,000 for the purposes of the Sustentation Fund for 1925.

Mr. Pember presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE SUSTENTATION FUND

Mr. Pember presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER ELECTIONS

as follows:

The Election Committee which acted in the Diocesan Convention of 1923 was continued to report to this Convention any further changes in the Standing Rule on Nominations and Elections. The Committee feels that the Standing Order as now provided is workable and has no further changes to suggest.

For the Committee,
GILBERT E. PEMBER, Chairman.

The Rev. G. C. Carter offered the following Resolution, which was adopted, on division, Ayes, 47; Noes, 46:

Resolved, That the Preferential Ballot be discontinued.

The Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge offered the following Resolution, which was lost:

Resolved, That the Committee on Election be requested to consider the method of balloting and report to the next Convention.

The Rev. A. A. Ewing presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

(See Appendix J, p. 313.)

and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Report of the Board of Examining Chaplains be printed in the JOURNAL.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to pay bills incurred by the Examining Chaplains in their work, when properly certified by the officers of the Board, up to the amount of $150 for the Convention Year.

The Bishop nominated as Examining Chaplains for the term expiring in 1927 the Rev. Drs. Bartlett, Barton, Davies, Gummey and Foley; and for the term expiring in 1925 the Rev. C. E. Tuke, D.D., to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Montgomery.

The Convention confirmed the appointments.

The Bishop appointed as Chancellor of the Diocese, J. Wilson Bayard, Esq., and as Registrar of the Diocese, the Rev. A. H. Hord.

The following Reports were presented by Title:

The Registrar of the Diocese (Appendix L, p. 317).
The House of Rest.
The Episcopal Hospital.
The Trustees of the Christmas Fund, together with the Report of the Treasurer (Appendix I, p. 312).
The Commission on Church Work among the Jews (p. 315).
The Commission on Church Work among the Blind.
The Treasurer of the Church Extension Fund (p. 315).
The Seamen's Church Institute.
The Church Building Commission.
The Committee on Parochial History, which, on motion, was ordered printed in the JOURNAL (Appendix M p. 319).
The Church Training and Deaconess House.

The Rev. H. S. Hathaway offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the doctrines of Parliamentary Law, as set forth in the treatise of Roberts on Parliamentary Law, be adopted as authoritative expositions of parliamentary practice as far as applicable to the conditions of the meetings of the Diocesan Convention and that this Resolution be added to the Standing Rules of Order.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted, with the change of "protest" to "regret" in Resolution 2 and the omission of the last three words in Resolution 3, as follows:

Resolved by the Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, That we favor the proposal made by President Harding in his message of February 24, 1923, which has been endorsed by President Coolidge and Secretary of State Hughes, that the Government of the United States should join with other nations of the world in the maintenance of and participation in the permanent court of international controversies not by force of arms but by the impartial investigation of facts and the application to them of the rules of international law by a world court.

Resolved, That we regret the delay by the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate which has had this proposal before it without action for over a year, and we respectfully ask for immediate and favorable action by that committee, and by the Senate of the United States.

Resolved, That this action be at once communicated to the President of the United States and to the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate.

The Bishop appointed the following Committees (for personnel see p. 5): On Arrangements; On Canons; On Charters; On Dispatch of Business; On Expenses.

The Rev. T. L. Gossling presented bills for Luncheon ($589.50) and for Incidentals ($4.00) which were referred to the Committee on Expenses with power.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention be conveyed to the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church of The Holy Trinity for their hospitality in extending the use of their buildings for the business of the Convention.

Resolved, That 700 copies of the JOURNAL be printed and distributed as usual.

Resolved, That the next Annual Convention be held on Tuesday, May 5, 1925, at such place and hour as the Bishop and Standing Committee may appoint.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the honorarium of one hundred dollars to the Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

Resolved, That the Bishop be authorized to appoint after the adjournment of the Convention the usual Committees and Commissions.

Resolved, That after the reading of the rough minutes, and prayers by the President, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The rough minutes of the day's sessions were read and approved.

After prayer and benediction by the President, the Convention adjourned sine die.

RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention.

CHARLES S. LYONS,
Assistant Secretary.

Registered Attendance: Clergy, 204; Laity, 259.

After the Convention adjourned, the Bishop appointed the Committees and Commissions (for personnel see pp. 5 and 6):

Received from the Roman Church 10

During the past year I performed my duties as Bishop Suffragan until the resignation of Bishop Rhinelander was accepted by the House of Bishops on November 14th. In accordance with the Constitution and Canons I then became Ecclesiastical Authority and continued to act as such until my election as Bishop of the Diocese was confirmed and notice to that effect issued by the Standing Committee.

I desire to express my sincere appreciation of the considerate co-operation of the Standing Committee during this interim.

I would also take this opportunity to thank all who had part in the arrangements for the impressive and inspiring service arranged for my Installation and the Luncheon which followed. The unexpected token of the love and loyalty of the Clergy of the Diocese will always be among my most cherished possessions.

I do not remember any previous Convention where our records have chronicled the death of so many Bishops of the Church. Seven have died since we met a year ago, the oldest being the Venerable Presiding Bishop, Alexander Charles Garrett, age 82. Only three of them had reached the age of three-score years and ten, although another was close to it. Two were between 50 and 60, and one was but 45 years old. Two of these Bishops were my juniors in the Episcopate. Brief references to each one of these Bishops and to deceased brethren of the Clergy and Laity will be printed in the Journal.

The Bishop's Fund

During the past year the offerings for the Bishop's Fund have amounted to $3359.87 from 125 Parishes and Missions. This has been largely used for cases of relief among the Clergy and for other purposes at the Bishop's discretion. Outside of our regular Budget for Missionary work there are continual demands on the Bishop of the Diocese for assistance in many ways for which no funds are provided. In the past we have had some generous communicants in our Diocese to whom the Bishop could always turn for assistance. As an illustration I would say that before we increased the salary of the Clergy and when the minimum was very low there was one generous Layman in this Diocese, now dead, for whom I distributed annually over $1000. This assistance he had considered as a privilege for about thirty years, thus making it possible for some of our Missionaries to take vacations. Another generous Layman (whom I am thankful to say is still living) has for six or seven years past continued a similar donation of five hundred dollars per year. However, there does not seem to be anyone to take the place of the few former generous givers who could be called on at any time for substantial assistance in special cases and who looked upon it as a privilege to help.

There are many instances where a Bishop from his intimate knowledge of conditions could be almoner for those who are able to help but who have not the opportunity to know of the need or the time to investigate. I would like therefore to have a few generous men and women who might be silent partners with me and furnish such means of assistance. In a general way the needs could be classified as

First—Educational—In assisting the sons and daughters of the Clergy in School and College.

Second—Philanthropic and Charitable—To answer calls for special needs in emergency cases.

Third—Missionary—To aid in assisting in missionary work for which the funds are not otherwise provided in our Budget.

In most instances donors prefer to give such assistance anonymously, and whenever such desire is expressed it is always followed—but even in these instances it has been my rule to send to those for whom I act an acknowledgment from the person to whom assistance is given so that they will have a proper accounting of such a trust.

If there are any generous Laymen or women of this Diocese who desire to assist in this work I will be glad to hear from them.

Rotation in Office

Although there is a demand on the part of many for rotation in office it is impossible to follow such a plan in all general Committees and Commissions. Some of them demand men having expert knowledge such as The Commission on Church Building, The Committee on Parochial History, Examining Chaplains, etc. For those that function in the Convention it is also true that many need the expert knowledge gained by experience such as the Committees on Canons and Charters. However, in many other instances, there can be more rotation, and these offices should not always be filled by men who hold other positions of honor under the Convention. There are many unnecessary duplications, some of which, in my opinion, do not expedite the business of the Convention, as men holding important positions have enough to do attending to the duties of one office without being responsible for several others. It is my intention to make changes from year to year in offices where there should be such rotation.

Of missionary matters I need not speak in detail, as comprehensive reports will be made by the various departments of the Executive Council.

Missionary Offerings

You are all aware of the fact that the offerings in this Diocese for the year 1923 surpassed all previous records and that the total amount sent to the National Council exceeded that of any other Diocese. The Women's United Thank Offering since the last General Convention now amounts to $38,443.63 over $5300 more than the corresponding period three years ago. This represents offerings from 190 Parishes and Missions.

There is every reason to hope that the Lenten offering of the children will show an appreciable increase over the $60,834.00 of last year.

Notwithstanding all these encouraging statements we are yet far from the goal and still depend on extra offerings to make up as much as possible of our annual deficiency on the Budget for Maintenance. Leaving out the question of dollars and cents, let us make up our minds to press forward with more generous zeal and do our utmost to furnish the maintenance and support of a larger number of Missionaries in the home and foreign field.

In the missionary work of the Diocese I have constituted the Deans of the Convocations, the Chairman of the Department of Missions with the Archdeacons ex-officio as a Council of Advice on missionary work in the Diocese. This will insure the proper co-ordination of our missionary efforts and through the Deans both the Convocations and the Department of Missions will be kept in touch with all matters concerned with our Diocesan missionary needs.

As a Diocese we will not take up our offering for the Japanese Reconstruction Fund until the Autumn, except in a few Parishes and Missions where plans have already been formulated. This postponement was suggested by the Executive Council with the belief that we would get a larger offering in the Fall. As a Diocese we are particularly interested in the reconstruction work in Japan. Bishop Motoda, the first Japanese to be consecrated to the Episcopate is a graduate of our Philadelphia Divinity School. For many years Dr. Motoda has occupied an unique place in the educational life of Japan as a special adviser of the Japanese Government and as Head of St. Paul's College. Many other leading men in the Diocese of Tokyo are graduates of our own Seminary and I am sure that for this reason as well as others, we will do everything in our power as a Diocese to send a generous offering to the Reconstruction Fund when the appeal is issued in the autumn.

Japanese Reconstruction Fund

Another Fund for which we have not yet issued an appeal is the Bishop Tuttle Memorial Fund. We do not expect to receive many large contributions for this object, but when the appeal is issued we trust that every Communicant in our Diocese will want to have a share in erecting this Memorial in honor of one who for fifty-seven years was a Bishop of our Church and who endeared himself to all of us as our Presiding Bishop, the Patriarch of the American Church.

It is not possible to mention all the new buildings, improvements and gifts to our Parishes during the Convention year. The most noteworthy are as follows:

Church Community House

The Community House in Morrisville representing an investment of about $35,000 (of which the Diocese was responsible for $25,000) was dedicated by me on Easter Tuesday. We have before referred to this notable departure in social service in the erection of an edifice which is to be in a real sense a community building in which will be housed the Chamber of Commerce, the Town Library, the Red Cross, the American Legion, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts and kindred organizations. There is also ample provision for recreation and amusement. We acknowledge our thanks to The Church Periodical Club of this Diocese for furnishing the Library with over 3500 volumes. In Morrisville and vicinity there is a population of four to five thousand people for whom this building will be the welfare center. The Board of Managers is composed of leading representatives of the community and of the Diocese, but those living in Morrisville will practically manage the house. The working out of this experiment will be watched with great interest, as it is probably the first building of its kind erected in the country. The nearest approach to such an effort in our own Diocese up to the present time is the Community House erected at Gladwyn a few years ago. It also functions as a Community Center, but is under the parochial care of the Church of The Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, by which it is supported and the Church Services are held in the building.

Ground has been broken for a Parish House at Glenside under the pastoral care of the Rector of St. Peter's, Weldon.

Recent Forward Work

The Parish House of St. Barnabas's, Germantown, has been completed, and is now in use.

The colored Mission of the Church of The Ascension, West Chester, is occupying the house purchased for its use and an enlargement is contemplated.

St. Martin's, Oak Lane, has completed a $20,000 addition to its Parish House.

St. Mary's, Ardmore, has rebuilt and enlarged its Chancel as a memorial to the late rector, the Rev. George Pomeroy Allen.

A new St. Peter's House has been opened at 313 Pine Street, the gift of Mrs. Markoe.

A contract has been awarded for the erection of St. Aidan's Chapel, Cheltenham, at a cost of $38,000. This chapel was provided for by the will of the late Mrs. John C. Bawn and the chapel is under the care of the Rector of the Church of The Holy Nativity, Rockledge.

Garrett Hall, a Parish House for Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, has been finished and is now occupied. The ground was purchased and the building erected by Mrs. Mary M. Garrett.

The basement of the Parish House of St. Giles', Stonehurst, was completed and opened in the early winter and the temporary frame Chapel will soon be removed to serve as a Mission in another location.

The Administration Building of the Church Farm School, given by Mrs. George C. Thomas and her family, is completed and also the first unit of the children's department, made possible by the merger of the Home of The Good Shepherd. Plans for the machine shop are now being completed and a generous friend has promised to pay for its erection.

The largest bequest made to any of our Parishes during the year was that of Miss Anna J. Magee to St. Stephen's Church. This will add over $100,000 to the Endowment Fund. Miss Magee also left large legacies to many of our Church's institutions and provided for a Convalescent Home to cost $1,000,000.

A Dangerous Precedent

At the Special Convention I read a statement in reference to the standing of several Clergymen who might claim a right to vote. As it happened none were present to whom such exception applied, but other claims were made and by resolution of the Convention, two Clergymen were given a vote who were not on the official list as so entitled to vote. I therefore desire to give public notice of the Standing Resolution of the Convention adopted in 1895 and that hereafter Missionaries, who have no definite charge in the Diocese, but who come under the Constitutional clause of working "with the sanction of the Ecclesiastical Authority," shall have a written notice of such an appointment given for the current Convention Year. My opinion in the matter is quite definite and clear and is based on the following facts:

First—A Clergyman should not be received into this Diocese by a Letter of Transfer unless he has been elected a Rector or appointed as a regular Assistant, or to some other position which in accordance with the canons entitles him to vote.

Second—Clergymen, who are received into this Diocese merely as a matter of courtesy, but who have never held a cure in the Diocese, cannot be put on the official list of Missionaries working under the Ecclesiastical Authority and thus given a seat and vote in the Convention.

I think this is a sound basis for our decision, as I do not think a Bishop should have the right to bring men into the Diocese and give them a vote in the Convention even by an appointment as a Missionary under the Ecclesiastical Authority. It is a dangerous precedent to establish. I do not claim that it has been done, but the action at the Special Convention would open the way to such an interpretation and it seems to me that there is not any constitutional ground on which it can stand.

To put the question plainly, "Should a Clergyman, who has never held a Parochial Cure, or been a Curate, or a Missionary in this Diocese, be allowed a seat and vote in the Convention simply because he has been received by the Ecclesiastical Authority and has taken supply work from time to time when opportunity offered?" I might further add that a Clergyman who has had a seat and vote can have this right continued by an appointment under the Ecclesiastical Authority, but I repeat that it is a dangerous precedent to rule that men can come into the Diocese without a definite appointment and so qualify for a seat and vote. I know that the Convention has the final decision in such matters, but I think it is of sufficient importance to make this public statement and would suggest that the whole subject be carefully considered by the Committee on Canons and a report brought into the next Convention so that a Standing Order may be adopted to govern us in the future.

I would also suggest that some proper Canonical provision should be made to give seats, ex-officio, to all persons elected to offices or positions of trust by the Convention.

About two years ago the Harris Mansion, on School Lane, with about four acres of ground, was given to the Diocese to be used by an Institution to be designated by the Bishop. After a careful survey of the property was made, Bishop Rhinelander opened negotiations with several institutions, but no definite action was taken. A few months ago I made an effort to establish a Home for Aged Clergymen and their wives and widows, but the project could not be carried through and arrangements have now been made to give the property to the Sheltering Arms for the work of that Institution.

Definite Instructions in Wills

I think it is my duty, however, to explain to the Convention a serious difficulty encountered in the effort to establish a Home for Aged Clergymen. Some years ago Elizabeth B. Jefferies, in her Will, made provision for the opening of such a Home, either in her own property on Tulpehocken Street, or for the sale of her property and the establishment of such a Home in another location, leaving her residuary estate for an endowment. The estate now amounts to approximately $200,000 and it was my hope that the income from this could be available for such a Home on the School Lane property, which the Diocese could have contributed as a valuable asset.

Two executors, who were members of the Church, died before the testatrix and by later codicils the remaining executor and a Trust Company were appointed executors.

We offered to open the Home, using the income for its maintenance and agreeing to be responsible for any deficit, the principal to remain in the hands of the Trust Company perpetually; we also agreed to put the executor and representatives of the Trust Company on the Board of Managers. It is certainly clear to every member of the Church that a Home for Aged Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church would be an Institution of such a character that it could be only properly managed by some Church organization or corporation and I am confident from what I have learned that that was the intention of the testatrix. However, as written, the Will merely cites the purpose for which the money is given and provides that the trustees may convey the house and lot and "said monies or investments to any corporation able and willing to assume said trust." The executors declined to accept our proposition and state that they propose to open the Home and run it themselves.

I mention this matter because I think it is my duty to advise members of the Church that in making out their Wills they must be certain that the lawyers who write them incorporate the real intention of the testator; and that money left for Church purposes should be definitely tied up so that the Diocese, either through the Trustees or in some other legal way, shall have a voice in the management of the institution which they desire to found or assist.

A Swedish Archbishop

One of the outstanding Ecclesiastical events of the past year was the visit of Archbishop Soderblom, who preached in Gloria Dei Church on Armistice Day, November 11th, assisted by the Rector and the Rev. Dr. Hammarskold. It was the first visit of an Archbishop of Upsala to this historic edifice, which was under the jurisdiction of his See since it was first organized, almost forty years before William Penn came to Philadelphia, and was a Swedish Church until it was received into union with the Convention in 1845.

In December Gloria Dei Church will celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the organization of the Sunday School and Bible Classes and will commemorate the event by founding a bed in the Episcopal Hospital in memory of the Rev. Dr. Simes and his wife.

Cathedral Endowment Fund

At the last Convention the President was authorized to appoint a committee to consult with similar committees of the Cathedral Chapter and Executive Council on the question of financing Cathedral Enterprises. The report of this committee will be presented to you for your consideration. I am heartily in favor of increasing the Endowment Fund and hope that this can be done in the near future.

There is no immediate prospect of securing a site, nor has any step been taken to raise a fund for the erection of buildings, but it is apparent that the Foundation cannot properly function in the Diocese until we have sufficient income to command the services of experts in the fields of Missions, Religious Education and Social Service.

Seamen's Church Institute

The Seamen's Church Institute has completed the campaign for its new building and expects to break ground within the next few weeks. Among many gifts received was one for $5000 to name a corridor for Bishop Rhinelander.

The honorary officers include several Clergymen of our Church, three Methodists and three Baptists, thus emphasizing the undenominational character of the work.

The work of the Churchmen's Missionary Association for Seamen has been merged with the Institute.

The Divinity School is preparing to conduct its campaign from May 16th to May 26th. As soon as possible thereafter, work will be begun on the Chapel, the Deanery, two professors' houses, a unit of the Dormitories and part of the Service Building.

The Divinity School Campaign

The work of the Divinity School has been mentioned so often to this Convention that it is not necessary to enter into details at the present time, but I sincerely hope and confidently expect that there will be a generous response to this appeal from the men and women of every Parish and Mission in this Diocese. We have been too neglectful for our institutions for Theological training and very little has been done for this great Institution since the effort made at the time of its foundation. The removal to a site near the University has given us the opportunity to manifest a little of the same spirit of generous interest that was so signally shown in the days when the Divinity School was first opened. Many of the Bishops and Clergy of our Church have received their training in this School and every member of the Church in the Diocese should take a pride in having a share in the development of its plans and thus providing for the proper housing and education of the Ministry in the years to come.

I consider this project of such paramount importance to the whole Church that I desire to give as much time as possible to it for the next few weeks. If there are any prospective givers who desire to consult with me in reference to it I will be glad to make appointments with them.

It is customary for a new Diocesan to outline a program, but in this instance you will not expect such a program in detail. Unless a Bishop knows his Diocese, it is futile to do so, and when he is thoroughly acquainted with his work it is not necessary. From our experience in the past, I am sure that with your cordial co-operation we will go forward in a constructive way.

There are some general ideals which I consider of primary importance. First, the unity of the Clergy.

Unity of Clergy and Laity

I trust that we have achieved this. There is, in this Diocese, at the present time, a strong bond of unity pervading the entire Brotherhood of the Clergy. We believe in "one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all," and it is my earnest hope and prayer that in the unity of the spirit and in the bond of peace we may ever manifest to those around us that ideal spirit of Christian love that should exist between those who are disciples of the Lord of Love.

Second, there should be a truer use of the latent powers of the Laity. We have not begun to use our Laymen as they should be used, if the Kingdom of God is really to make any progress, at home or abroad. I am not speaking in terms of money, but of service. I am sure that a greater missionary spirit can be developed in this Diocese, and that such a manifestation must begin at home. One of the first steps in this connection was the organization of the Associated Vestries. Another which we hope to inaugurate in the Autumn will be a Layreaders' Association, the members of which will give systematic help in the missions of the Diocese.

Third, the work of the women. The limitations of my past position were such that I could only occasionally come into contact with the work being done by the women, except in the Diocesan work of the Convocations assigned to me. We have many things for which we have to thank the women, especially for their example of consecrated zeal in the cause of missions. After getting into closer contact with their work, I feel certain that with their help we can move steadily towards greater accomplishments, with a similar increase of the spirit of service.

Fourth, work among young people. The work being done for the young people throughout our Church is yet in its infancy, so far as the adoption of any constructive plan is concerned. We have done wonders in this Diocese with the children's Lenten Offering, and with the Sunday School Institute. But the whole Church School movement needs more earnest support than it has received in the past, as the children of today will be the men and women of tomorrow. I therefore bespeak your earnest interest in all plans made for the work of our Church School or Sunday School Institute meetings, and of such organizations as the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Daughters of the King, the Girls' Friendly Society, and other kindred Societies which are engaged in the spiritual side of the Church work.

Work Among Young People

As we think of this great City (where the majority of our Communicants live), with its two million people, and remember how small a body we are, let us realize what little influence we bring to bear upon the City and its problems. In all our thoughts, our plans, our prayers, we must have under consideration the great problems around our own doors, our own homes, and ascertain if there is not some way in which we can bring the influence of our Church to bear on the redemption of the City.

A recent manifesto of some English Bishops protests against the prevalent disposition to disparage the application of Christian ethics to public affairs and states that to refuse that application is to ruin the Church's influence in national life. It concludes with these words: "There are sins which lie at the root of civil and economic evils." Such a pronouncement is timely and well worthy of our careful consideration. Religion cannot be considered exclusively from the individual standpoint, yet even from that standpoint there is much to be desired. As a Church we believe in the observance of law, and obedience to those in authority. On every Lord's Day we pray for them. We do not always realize that a special obligation rests upon us as individuals and especially upon those who hold official positions. By our example and influence as members of the Church we should make manifest to all that we do not countenance disobedience to law, and this not merely with reference to the Eighteenth Amendment but also to gambling or games of chance at entertainments, whether they are given under the auspices of our churches or of institutions with which we are personally connected. I hope that all who teach in Church Schools, Missionary Societies or Mission Study Classes will impress upon their hearers the high ideals of Christian character that should be manifest in those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion. The members of our Church, and perhaps, above others, the women of the Church have an opportunity to hold up the high standard of Christian living in society, and in the home, as well as in the Church, and to show by their example that conduct is governed by Christian ideals.

Looking at the question from the larger standpoint of the Church,—with the evidence of corruption in many unsuspected places, the manifestation of the spirit of lawlessness, and the lack of respect for civil authority, the time has come when we should voice our convictions and not treat such matters with indifference. Too often we have been silent when we should have spoken, and we owe it to ourselves and to our children, to our nation and to humanity, to our Church and to the Divine Lord in whom we believe, to do all in our power to stem the tide of lawlessness of immorality and irreligion.

If we believe that Christ has given to us a revelation which contains the law of life, then it is applicable to all of life and we cannot draw a line of demarcation between the religious and the secular which implies that Christian principles can be disregarded in our political, economic or social life. I do not think that it is our duty to take up purely political questions, but there are great moral problems which vitally affect us as Christians and upon the proper solution of which the future of our city, perhaps our nation and of our Church depends. The Christian principles of brotherhood, fellowship and service are applicable to all the manifold relations of life, and this should be manifest to all who profess and call themselves Christians. Even though it seems difficult to arrive at the proper solution of the problems that confront us, no one can doubt that our duty lies in the direction of recognizing our moral responsibility and our Christian obligation to bring the spirit of Christ to bear upon their solution and this in a corporate capacity in which the profound conviction of Christian people shall express itself.

Individually, men cannot become strong spiritually even by lives of prayer, if they forget the obligation of Christian service, and with aloofness disregard the great problems that menace our civilization. This is also true of the Church. The Church exists to propagate the Gospel, to save the world, and our spiritual progress comes through service. As a City we are blest with great educational institutions, we have many welfare organizations of various kinds ministering to the needs of the poor, the sick, the distressed and the unfortunate—we have our places of amusement and recreation—we pride ourselves in being the greatest manufacturing city in the country. Even with the growth of our modern apartment houses, ours is more than any other community a city of homes, but what about the soul of the city? The redemption of a city does not depend on these great institutions. It depends on Christian people, on our religious leadership. We cannot afford to be silent and allow disintegrating forces in the political or social life to tear down the high ideals on which our nation was founded. If the Church gives spiritual leadership and spiritual service to a community it can transform it and the soul of the city will express itself in the Christian principles of fellowship, brotherhood and service.

Spiritual Leadership Is Vital

I am aware of the fact that quite recently, in the House of Commons, a minister of the Crown was reproached for daring to base certain acts of policy upon the teaching of the Sermon on the Mount, but in the Church we cannot do otherwise if we are faithful to the trust committed to us, and the least we can do is to insist that Christian principles must govern the consideration of all questions whether in industry, commerce or politics, whether in state, national or international life. The Kingdom of God is not to be one of corruption, of lawlessness, of immorality, of exploitation of the public for private gain, or for material ambition or power. It is a Kingdom in which great human needs must be considered and where righteousness, justice and service are the rule of life. We all recall the old classic saying, "The Athenians know what is right—the Lacedemonians practice it." We proclaim justice, let us not hesitate to apply it to concrete cases when moral issues are involved. It should be our aim to make the City really a city of brotherly love. Let us start with a Church of brotherly love, and move forward steadily, radiating the influence of a Christ-like love that will permeate the life of the City. It is very comforting to think and sing and dream of the glory and the happiness of the future, but God expects us to make a little of it more real to others here, and if the Christian life brings any blessings to us, we must share them with others. We must breathe more of the spirit of Christ into this great world in which we live, if we ever expect a fulfilment of the prayer which we daily offer when we pray, "Thy Kingdom come."

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church

ALEXANDER CHARLES GARRETT, First Bishop of the Diocese of Dallas and Thirteenth Presiding Bishop of the Church, died at his home in Dallas, Texas, on February 18, 1924, in the eighty-second year of his age. He was born in Ireland, graduating from Trinity College in 1855, being made Deacon in 1856 and ordained to the Priesthood the following year. After a three years Curacy he came to British Columbia, where he served as Missionary until 1869, when he accepted a call to San Francisco. From 1872 to 1874 he was Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Omaha, Nebraska. In this latter year he was elected and consecrated First Missionary Bishop of North Texas. On the division of the Diocese in 1895 he selected Dallas for his jurisdiction. He became Presiding Bishop at the death of Bishop Tuttle on April 17, 1923.

GRANVILLE HUDSON SHERWOOD, Third Bishop of the Diocese of Springfield, died suddenly at his home in Springfield, Illinois, on the afternoon of Thursday, November 22, 1923, in the forty-fifth year of his age. He was born in Elgin, Illinois, on December 6, 1878, receiving his early education at S. Paul's School, Concord, at Trinity College and at the University of Chicago, where he graduated in 1899. Entering the Western Theological Seminary the year following, he was made Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood in 1903 by Bishop Anderson. He was Rector of Trinity Church, Rock Island, from 1905 until his consecration to the Episcopate on S. Mark's Day, 1917.

EDWARD ARTHUR TEMPLE, First Missionary Bishop of the District of North Texas, died at his home in Amarillo, on January 10, 1924, in the fifty-seventh year of his age. He was born in Walkerton, Virginia, on September 5, 1867, being graduated from the Theological Seminary at Alexandria in 1895, when he was made Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. During his Diaconate he had charge of the Churches at Front Royal and White Post, Virginia, continuing that work until 1903, when he became Rector of Saint Paul's Church, Waco, Texas, where he remained for seven years. The General Convention of 1910 set aside the northwestern corner of Texas as a Missionary District and on December 15th of that year Bishop Temple was consecrated as the first missionary Bishop of North Texas.

EDWIN GARDNER WEED, Third Bishop of Florida, died at his home in Jacksonville, February 19, 1924, in the seventy-seventh year of his age. He was born in Savannah, Georgia, on July 23, 1847, matriculating at the University of Georgia in 1862. When the Civil War broke out, he entered the army of the Confederate States, serving until peace was declared. Resuming his studies at the University of Berlin, and at the General Theological Seminary, he graduated in 1870, when he was made Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood the following year. His only charge was the Church of The Good Shepherd, Summerville, where he was Rector from 1871 to 1886. In the latter year he was consecrated to the Episcopate, the whole State of Florida being in his Missionary District. In 1892 the southern part of the State became a Missionary District. At the time of his death Bishop Weed was next in order to the Presiding Bishop.

FREDERIC WILLIAM KEATOR, First Bishop of the Diocese of Olympia, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on January 31, 1924, in the sixty-ninth year of his age. He was born in Honesdale, Pennsylvania, on October 22, 1855, but his family moved to Illinois when he was three years old. He was graduated from Yale University in 1880, taking up the practice of law in Chicago, where he also acted as a Lay Reader. Some years later he entered the Western Theological Seminary, graduating in 1891, in which year he was made Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood. After serving for eleven years in Illinois and Iowa, he was consecrated, on January 8, 1902, as Missionary Bishop of Olympia, which district was organized as a Diocese in 1910. During the twenty-two years of his Bishopric, Bishop Keator greatly endeared himself, not only to his own people, but to the whole State of Washington.

GEORGE COOLIDGE HUNTING, Fourth Missionary Bishop of the District of Nevada, died at his home in Reno, on February 6, 1924, in the fifty-third year of his age. He was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on October 22, 1871, graduating from the Theological Seminary in Virginia, in 1894, when he was made Deacon. For the next four years he was in charge of Saint Paul's Church, Virginia City, Nevada, being ordained to the Priesthood in 1897. After a varied missionary service in Wyoming, Utah and Nevada, he became Secretary of the Eighth Province and on December 16, 1914, he was consecrated to the Episcopate. In the winter of 1922, during Bishop Rhinelander's absence on account of illness, Bishop Hunting spent some time in assisting in the Confirmations in the Diocese during which visit he endeared himself to all who met him.

CHARLES TYLER OLMSTED, Second Bishop of Central New York, died at his home, in Utica, on Wednesday, March 26th, in the eighty-first year of his age. He was born in Cohoes, New York, on April 28, 1842, graduated from Trinity College in 1865 and from the Berkeley Divinity School in 1868. He was made Deacon in 1867 and became Junior Assistant in Trinity Chapel on his graduation, remaining for six years, when he was elected rector of Grace Church, Utica. In 1899 he became Vicar of St. Agnes' Chapel, New York, where he remained until his consecration as Bishop Coadjutor of Central New York on October 2, 1902. In 1904 Bishop Olmsted succeeded as Bishop of the Diocese. For several years the infirmities of old age have prevented active work and the Coadjutor has had jurisdiction of the Diocese.

Of Priests of this Diocese:

ARTHUR GOFFE COOMBS, Chaplain of S. Michael and All Angels, died on May 20, 1923. He received his training at S. Stephen's College and at the DeLancey Divinity School. He was ordained Deacon in 1898 by Bishop Walker and Priest in 1900 by Bishop Gray. He served as Assistant at S. Augustine's Church, Boston, Massachusetts, from 1898 to 1899; at S. James' Church, Ocala, Florida, from 1899 to 1902; Good Shepherd, Thomasville, Georgia, from 1902 to 1906, and as Rector of Holy Trinity Church, Nashville, Tenn., in 1907, later going to the Church of The Good Shepherd, Mobile, Alabama, as Rector, and coming to this Diocese in 1920, after serving also in Chicago.

ALFRED EDWARD MACNAMARA, a retired Priest of this Diocese, died at Hot Springs, Arkansas, on September 3, 1923. He was born in County Galway, Ireland. Graduating from the Philadelphia Divinity School in 1898, he was ordained Deacon and Priest the same year by Bishop Talbot. Most of his life was spent as a Missionary in the West, where he served in Idaho, Washington, Montana and Hood River, Oregon. It was while serving these western missionary posts that he became exposed to the extreme cold and was so badly frozen that he was unable to undertake any very active work in his later years. He took charge of S. Luke's Mission, Eddystone, in 1918, and was only there a short time when his health began to fail and he went to Hot Springs, hoping to be restored. He was never able to get about again except in a wheeled chair and in a short time death came as a happy release from his sufferings.

ROBERT MAGEE BECKETT, Vicar of Trinity Chapel, Cheltenham, died on October 15, 1923. He was forty-three years old, a graduate of S. Stephen's College and the Philadelphia Divinity School. He was ordained Deacon in 1909 and Priest in 1910, being the first man to be ordained by Bishop Thomas, of Wyoming. He served three years at Jackson's Hole, Wyoming, returning to the Diocese of Pennsylvania in 1912, where he became Assistant at the Church of S. Simeon. In 1914 he became Assistant at Christ Church, Germantown, and later was appointed Diocesan Missionary at Trinity Church, Gulph Mills. He was much beloved by his people in Cheltenham, where he did a successful work.

JOHN KENNEDY MOORHOUSE, Rector of Calvary Church, Conshohocken, died on November 8, 1923, in the forty-sixth year of his age, after a brief illness. Born in Allegheny, Pa., June 15, 1877, he graduated from Haverford College and was ordained Deacon in 1903 and Priest in 1904 by Bishop Whitaker. During his Diaconate he was in charge of the newly-organized Mission of S. Paul's, Bristol, and when that work became a Parish was elected Rector, remaining there until 1910, when he went to Conshohocken. He was also Dean of the Norristown Convocation from 1918 until his death. He was deeply loved by his flock and the fineness of his character was apparent even to those who knew him slightly, while to those who knew him well it was an inspiration.

JAMES HART LAMB, Rector Emeritus of S. David's Church, Radnor, died on February 1, 1924, in the Episcopal Hospital, in his eighty-first year. He was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, receiving part of his early education there and later in the Philadelphia public schools. Graduating from the Philadelphia Divinity School in 1869, he was ordained Deacon in 1872 and Priest in 1873 by Bishop Odenheimer. His first Rectorship was S. Peter's Church, Clarksboro, New Jersey. He served from 1878 until 1897 as Rector of Trinity Church, Moorestown, in 1880 established Holy Innocents' Church at Beach Haven, N. J., maintaining connection with it for thirty years. He served for six years as financial secretary of the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society. He was Rector of S. David's, Radnor, from 1902 until 1919, when he became Rector Emeritus.

HARRY KEPPELE BUNTING OGLE, Rector of Christ Church, Franklinville, died suddenly at the Rectory, on February 4, 1924, in the forty-sixth year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia and was a graduate of Princeton and Trinity Colleges and of the Philadelphia Divinity School. Ordained Deacon in 1902 and Priest in 1903 by Bishop Mackay-Smith, his first charge was as Assistant at Christ Church, Bridgeport, Pa., from 1900 to 1902. For the next year he was Assistant at Trinity Church, Hartford, Conn., and from 1903 to 1904 at the Church of The Advocate, in this Diocese. He was in charge of the Prince of Peace Chapel from 1904 to 1913, when he became Rector of the Church of The Covenant and afterwards Assistant at Christ Church, Philadelphia, from which place he was called to the Rectorship of Christ Church, Franklinville.

SAMUEL UPJOHN, Rector Emeritus of S. Luke's Church, Germantown, died at the Rectory on March 29, 1924, in the eighty-second year of his age. He was born in Brooklyn, New York, March 23, 1842. He was ordained Deacon in 1866 and Priest in 1867, by Bishop Williams. He served as Assistant at S. James' Church, New London, Connecticut, from 1866 to 1868 and for the next sixteen years was Rector of S. Mark's, Augusta, Maine. He completed his fortieth year of loyal service as Rector of S. Luke's on December 2, 1923, on which date he became Rector Emeritus. During his long Rectorship many improvements were made and a fine group of buildings stands today as a monument to his wise forethought and judgment, as does also the Fund which he established for the endowment of the Parish. But the spiritual growth of S. Luke's has far outweighed its material growth and he was ever a ready champion of "the Church of the Living God, the Pillar and Ground of Truth." He gave the best years of his life to the work of S. Luke's and has consoled many a wearied and burdened soul in times of affliction, while he endeared himself to countless others outside his Parish. He will surely live in the hearts of his people as their guide and their friend, "a faithful Steward of the Mysteries of God."

Of Deputies to the last Convention:

CHARLES BIDDLE, of All Saints' Church, Torresdale, died July 11, 1923, in his sixty-fourth year. He was born in Philadelphia and was a Deputy from All Saints' for many years; a member of the Cathedral Chapter and of the Standing Committee, as well as a Trustee of the Diocese. He was also active in War work. His services to the Trustees of the Diocese, and particularly to the Committee on Trusts of that body, were of an exceptional nature and his exceedingly good judgment was most useful on all the Committees where he served.

CHARLES FRANCIS GUMMEY, a Vestryman of Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia, died December 22, 1923, in the sixty-first year of his age. He was a member of the Committee on Canons and a Deputy to the Convention for many years. He was also Secretary of the Vestry of the Church of The Messiah, Gwynedd, being most conscientious and efficient in his service. Judge Gummey was widely esteemed as a public citizen who inspired not only confidence by his integrity and sound judgment, but affection as well by the sympathetic kindliness of his manner and spirit and by his warmth of personality. His was indeed an exemplary Christian character.

WILLIAM HOPKINS, of S. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, died March 2, 1924. He was an Alternate Deputy from that Parish.

WILLIAM HENRY MORRIS, of the Church of The Good Shepherd, Rosemont, died on January 11, 1924, in his seventy-seventh year. He was Rector's Warden of The Good Shepherd and a Deputy for a number of years. From 1875 until 1894, he was an active member of Christ Church, Pottstown, serving as Accounting Warden and Sunday School Superintendent as well as Deputy to the Convention. The Diocese has been blessed by his lively interest in the missionary work, both at home and abroad. He was always present at the meetings of the Convention and a generous supporter of all forward work in the Convocation of Chester.

GEORGE CHANDLER PAUL, of Emmanuel, Kensington, died on January 16, 1924, in his seventy-ninth year. For forty years he was officially connected with S. John's, Northern Liberties, and for three years filled the double post of Rector's Warden in S. John's and Emmanuel Parishes.

BENJAMIN FRANK WALDRON, of All Saints, Moyamensing, died on December 18, 1923, in his sixty-ninth year. He was Secretary of the Vestry, as well as Deputy of the Convention.

JOHN THOMAS YOUNG, of the Church of S. John the Baptist, Germantown, died on March 16, 1924. He was a Vestryman and Deputy from that Parish.

Of Deputies to former Conventions:

GEORGE STEPHESON CLARK, died on September 9, 1923. He was a Vestryman for thirty years.

FERGUS ELLIOTT, of the Church of S. John the Baptist, Germantown, died on December 11, 1923. He was a former Delegate to the Convention.

ARCHIBALD R. MONTGOMERY, died September 18, in his sixty-seventh year. He was a former Deputy and was for many years a Vestryman of the Church of The Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

JAMES CHESTON MORRIS, of Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, died on November 29, 1923. He was a founder of Holy Trinity and a former Deputy to the Convention.

WILLIAM HEYWOOD MYERS, of S. Martin's, Radnor, died on April 30, 1924.

ALBERT A. ROOP, of S. Paul's, Church, Chester, died at the close of the morning service on December 11, 1923, in his seventy-first year. He had not been in the best of health for nearly a year, but was a devoted and constant attendant at the Church services.

MORRIS WISTER STROUD, JR., of S. Martin's, Radnor, died suddenly on February 4, 1924. He was a former Deputy to the Convention.

WILLIAM PATTON, of Emmanuel Church, Kensington, died October 27, 1923, in his eighty-third year. He had served for more than a quarter of a century as Rector's Warden and was for many years a Deputy from that Parish. He had done much good work for the Church.

FRANCIS LEA PORTEUS, of Emmanuel Church, Kensington, died on Easter Day, April 20, 1924, in his seventy-seventh year. He was a Vestryman of the Church of The Messiah, Port Richmond, for ten years, and of Emmanuel Church, Kensington, for sixteen years. He also served many years as a Deputy to the Convention.

WILLIAM AUSTIN MCEWEN, of S. John's Church, Lansdowne, died in the Polyclinic Hospital, on April 28, 1924, in his sixty-second year. He became a member of the Vestry in 1897 and always gave freely of his strength and of his means. For many years he served as Superintendent of the Sunday School and was a churchman of firm faith and intense loyalty. He was also an important factor in community life, being in the forefront of many movements for the advancement of righteousness.

Of Vestrymen:

Milton Bennett Medary, S. Andrew, Philadelphia, and S. John, Cynwyd; T. Birch Starling, S. Philip; James Howard Taylor, Chapel of The Mediator; Arthington Gilpin, Christ Church Chapel; William R. May 8, 1923.—Doctor Jefferys moved that the Secretary of the Convention be advised that the expenses of the Convention would be paid by the Treasurer, appropriate vouchers and receipts for the same being reported to the following meeting of the Standing Committee.

The following Minute on the long and faithful service of Mr. Wood was unanimously adopted:

"The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania greatly regrets the withdrawal from its membership and from his office as Secretary of R. Francis Wood, Esq. Mr. Wood has served the Diocese continuously and faithfully as a member of the Committee since his election in the year 1900, and as Secretary since 1904; his personal interest and care given unsparingly to the work of his office and his unfailing courtesy are gratefully appreciated and acknowledged by his fellow members who will sadly miss his genial presence and valuable co-operation at their meetings."

May 28, 1923.—There was presented to the Standing Committee, for their consideration, a letter to the Trustees of the Diocese, dated May 22, 1923, offering $120,000 for the purchase of the Bishop's residence on Twenty-second Street. Mr. Reynolds D. Brown appeared before the Committee and explained the details of the offer and after discussion, the Committee approved of the desirability of selling the Bishop's residence, but felt that the price offered was inadequate and that the Diocese should not pay the Broker's commission under these circumstances.

June 5, 1923.—The Bishop conferred with the Standing Committee with reference to appointments on the Executive Council and the following gentlemen were duly elected thereto:

The Rev. Frederick E. Seymour
The Rev. Frank Lawrence Vernon
The Rev. Nathaniel B. Groton
Messrs. J. Andrews Harris
L. J. Morris
W. J. Dickson

On recommendation of the Bishop, $200 per month, beginning June 1st, and until further notice, was voted to the Bishop Suffragan for the support of an automobile.

A communication, dated May 24th, was received from St. Peter's Church, requesting approval of the sale of its property at Front and Pine Streets, which authority was voted.

Consent was given to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of New Jersey.

The Rev. Henry Davies, Ph.D., was appointed by the Bishop a member of the Board of Examining Chaplains and the appointment was confirmed.

A copy was received of the Notice of the Special Meeting of the House of Bishops called for November 14, 1923, at Dallas, Texas, together with copy of Bishop Rhinelander's letter to the Presiding Bishop of the Church, resigning his jurisdiction as Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

A communication was received from the Secretary of the Convention, dated May 14th, advising of a vacancy on the Board of Triers and on motion the Rev. Stewart P. Keeling was elected to fill the vacancy.

Consent was given to the union, merger and consolidation of St. John's Church, in the Northern Liberties, and the Emmanuel Church, Kensington, into a single church or congregation, to be called Church of Saint John and Emmanuel and consent was given to the holding of services of St. John's Church, in the Northern Liberties, at the present site of the Emmanuel Church, Kensington.

July 2, 1923.—Consent was given to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. James Edward Freeman, D.D., to be Bishop of the Diocese of Washington.

October 2, 1923.—Consent was given to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Robert E. L. Strider, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of West Virginia.

Consent was given to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Frank William Sterrett to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Bethlehem.

It was resolved:

"That a Committee of two be appointed by the President, with authority to approve all current bills and report to the next stated meeting of the Standing Committee and that the approval of this Committee be sufficient warrant for the Treasurer to pay these bills."

The President appointed Messrs. Bonsall and Houston as members of this Committee.

Permission was given to place a second mortgage of not over $5500 on the property of the Church of The Epiphany, at Sherwood.

A communication, dated June 5th, was received from the Bishop returning the papers relating to the merger of the Emmanuel Church, Kensington and St. John's Church, Northern Liberties, without his approval.

November 7, 1923.—Consent was given to the election of the Right Reverend Herman Page, D.D., Bishop of the Missionary District of Spokane, to be Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan.

Consent was given to the election of the Right Reverend Albion Williamson Knight, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of New Jersey.

Notified by the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission that there were two clerical vacancies on the Board of Council and upon motion the Rev. Harry Ransome and the Rev. Z. B. T. Phillips, D.D., were elected to the Board of Council of the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission.

Communication was received from the Trustees of the Christmas Fund notifying the Committee of the vacancy in that body caused by the death of Mr. Archibald R. Montgomery and upon motion Mr. Caspar W. Morris was unanimously elected as Trustee of the Christmas Fund.

On motion Doctor Perry was instructed to write a letter of affectionate farewell to the Bishop and that the letter be spread upon the Minutes:

"Dear Bishop Rhinelander:

The Standing Committee of your Diocese desire to express to you their profound sorrow that you are no longer physically able to bear the heavy burdens of work and responsibility which you have so long and courageously carried. We regret that the harmonious and affectionate relations with us, which during your Episcopate have been formed and strengthened, must be severed.

We heartily thank you for the courtesy and consideration which you have always shown to us as your Council of Advice, for your self-denying labors and efficient administration of this Diocese, holding it up to high standards and responsibility, developing its resources and capabilities, and making the years of your Episcopate a proud record in the history of our Diocese. We hope and pray that being relieved of many burdens and responsibilities you will find your strength renewed, and will be able to render valuable services to the Church at large. In these, we shall take a personal satisfaction and pride as being given by him who in our thoughts and affections will always be our Bishop.

Affectionately and faithfully yours,

(Signed) JAMES DEWOLF PERRY, President,
for the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

November 9, 1923."

November 16, 1923.—The President announced he had received notification from the Secretary of the House of Bishops of the acceptance of the resignation of Bishop Rhinelander.

The following Resolution was then passed:

"Whereas, The House of Bishops on November 14, 1923, accepted the resignation of the Right Reverend Philip Mercer Rhinelander, D.D., LL.D., D.C.L., as Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, Resolved, That the Standing Committee does hereby join with the Bishop Suffragan in calling a Special Meeting of the Convention of the Diocese, to be held Tuesday, January 22, 1924, for the purpose of electing a Bishop of the Diocese and transacting such other business as may properly come before said Convention."

Therefore, be it

December 4, 1923.—Mr. Reynolds D. Brown, Executive Secretary, submitted to the Committee an estimate of the expenses of the Episcopal Fund for the year 1924. After discussion it was resolved that the sum of $25,097.76 be apportioned to the various parishes and missions. At the meeting of January 8, 1924, this sum was reduced by motion to $23,097.76.

Mr. Bonsall presented a petition from the Emmanuel Church, Kensington, for the approval of a proposed charter of incorporation for the Emmanuel Church, Kensington, and, after discussion, upon motion, the proposed charter was approved.

Assent of the Committee was given for the conveyance of the lot of ground and church buildings thereon at Marlborough and Thompson Street and all other property of The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Emmanuel Church, Kensington, Philadelphia County, to the Emmanuel Church, Kensington, and the Bishop was advised to give his consent to the foregoing conveyance.

January 8, 1924.—Consent was given to the election of the Rev. Charles Schriever Reifsnider, L.H.D., to be Bishop Suffragan for the Right Rev. John McKim, D.D., Bishop of Tokyo.

Consent was given to the election of the Reverend Makin Cross to be Bishop of the Missionary District of Spokane.

Consent was given to the election of the Right Rev. Manuel Ferrando to be Suffragan Bishop of Porto Rico.

Consent was given to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Montana.

A sub-committee on the Bishop's salary reported to the Committee and it was voted that the Standing Committee recommend to the Convention a salary of $10,000 and a house.

February 5, 1924.—Consent was given to St. Barnabas' Mission, Germantown, to place a mortgage of $9000, the title of which was to be in the name of the Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

March 4, 1924.—Consent was given to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Western New York.

Notification was received of the election of the Right Rev. Thomas James Garland, D.D., D.C.L., to the bishopric of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Notification was received of the consent and concurrences of the requisite majority of the Bishops and Standing Committees of the Church, to the election of Bishop Garland. The requisite majority was reached on February 21, 1924.

Notice was received of a vacancy on the Board of Triers, to which vacancy the Rev. L. M. Robinson was unanimously elected.

Upon motion, the Standing Committee appointed Holy Trinity Church as the place of meeting for the Annual Convention, on May 6th, and the hour 9.30 A. M.

There was considerable discussion on the matter of the Episcopal Residence and the Chair appointed the Rev. Dr. Washburn and Messrs. Bonsall and Houston a committee.

April 1, 1924.—Consent was given to the election of the Venerable John Chanler White to be Bishop of the Diocese of Springfield.

Consent was given to the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany for the sale of The Epiphany Chapel, Seventeenth and Summer Streets, for $75,000.

Upon the explanation of Bishop Garland on the conditions surrounding the application for the merger of St. John's Church, in the Northern Liberties, and the Emmanuel Church, Kensington, on motion, duly seconded, it was resolved that action on the merger of St. John's Church, in the Northern Liberties, and the Emmanuel Church, Kensington, be deferred.

April 29, 1924.—The following names were agreed upon for submission to the Convention for nomination to the Executive Council:

Rev. Dr. Bartlett	Mr. Bonsall
Rev. Dr. Caley	Mr. Collier
Rev. Mr. Hartshorne	Mr. County
Rev. Mr. Pember	Mr. Earle
Rev. Dr. Washburn	Mr. A. E. Newbold, Jr.

Rev. Mr. Wood Stewart	Mr. L. J. Morris
Rev. Dr. Tomkins	Mr. William White
Rev. Mr. McHenry	Mr. C. E. Beury
Rev. Z. B. T. Phillips	Mr. Montgomery Harris

The Bishop nominated Mr. J. Wilson Bayard as Chancellor of the Diocese, which nomination was approved by the Committee.

A proposed amendment to the Charter of the Church of St. Asaph, Bala, was received and sanctioned.

Proposed amendments to the Charter of St. Simeon were received and recommitted to the Committee on Charters.

The Committee nominated as members of the Board of Council of the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission the following gentlemen:

Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, Ex-Officio	Mr. Edward H. Bonsall
Rev. J. DeWolf Perry	Mr. Allen Evans
Rev. Louis C. Washburn	Dr. Wilbur P. Klapp
Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, D.D.	Dr. Henry D. Jump
Rev. James M. Collins	Mr. E. Perot Bissell
Rev. Irving A. McGrew	Mr. R. R. Porter Bradford
Rev. John H. Chapman	Dr. Charles J. Hatfield
Rev. Harry Ransome	Mr. Walter H. Thomas
Rev. Z. B. T. Phillips, D.D.	Mr. Evan Randolph
Mr. Samuel F. Houston

The Committee discussed the matter of the Bishop's residence on Twenty-second Street and reports were received showing the great need of repairs to maintain the property in condition for use and it was voted by the Committee to recommend to the Convention that the sum of not over $10,000 be expended by the Trustees. Also, to recommend that the Convention pass a Resolution arranging for the restoration of the amount expended by an increased percentage of assessment over a period of approximately five years, should there not be sufficient current surplus from the Episcopal Residence Fund.

It was the sense of the meeting that if and after occupancy of the Bishop's residence on Twenty-second Street shall be undertaken by the Bishop, the income of approximately $1250 from the special fund of a principal amount of $25,000 known as the Episcopal Residence Fund for the Bishop Suffragan shall revert to the Episcopal Residence Fund.

May 6, 1924.—Adjourned meeting. The matter of St. Simeon's Church was again considered and again recommitted to the sub-committee on Charters.

W. W. FRAZIER, JR., Secretary.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese

Thomas S. Gates, Treasurer, in Account With the Diocese of Pennsylvania

During the year 1923 the financial work of the Diocese was carried on along the usual lines, covering the receipts, the care and disbursement of the moneys from the several funds in the custody of the Treasurer, and full reports concerning these funds are appended.

The greater interest of the Diocese, of course, is centered upon the report of the Missionary moneys comprised in what is known as the General Fund. Toward the end of the year 1923 it was found that the Diocese would be approximately $120,000 in arrears of the sum required to meet the Maintenance Budget of the National Council, and a special appeal was made during what was later termed "Sacrifice Week." This appeal resulted in the receipt of $62,201.91, the proceeds of which were sent to the Treasurer of the National Council, none being reserved for Diocesan work.

When this situation was discerned in November, 1923, it was thought that there would be a deficit in our Diocesan Budget accounts of approximately $6000, and immediately a generous donor gave $6000 to cover this deficit, so that all of the moneys covered by the special appeal could be sent to the National Council.

We began the year 1923 with a cash balance in the Diocesan Treasury of $11,407.69, all of which had been appropriated by the Council for designated purposes, which sum of $11,407.69 was the residue of the special appeal made late in 1922, this portion being appropriated to the Forward Work of the Diocese, the remainder of the $37,000 (which was the total sum collected by the special appeal of 1922) being sent to the Treasurer of the National Council. The Diocesan Treasury for 1923, therefore, began the year with no deficit, but such is not the case at the commencement of the year 1924.

At the beginning of 1924, instead of the deficit which in November was estimated to be $6000, as shown above, the Diocesan deficit was largely increased, due to the fact that during November and December, 1923, there was received for Diocesan and General purposes a sum over $16,000 less than the sum which was received in the two months of November and December of 1922, upon which latter figures the estimate that we should end the year with a deficit of $6000.

This gave us a comparatively poor start for 1924 (to which the following paragraph will refer), and in spite of the fact that the extraordinary efforts of 1923 resulted in this Diocese sending to the National Council applying on the Maintenance Quota the largest sums ever sent by this Diocese for these purposes, amounting to $246,649.16, our efforts on behalf of the Missionary Budget requirements of the Diocese resulted in conditions which have produced a serious operating deficiency in the Budget of the Diocese for the first three months of 1924. First, the Executive Council having ordered additional expenditures in the amount of $8,253.68, and second, owing to the fact that just upwards of $5000 was expended on account of the payment up to date of Clergy Pension Fund Premiums, and also the fact that we started with a deficit instead of some reserve funds which could be temporarily transferred (which was the case in 1923), we find the situation as of March 31, 1924, to be that the actual Diocesan working deficit as of that date is $22,150.72, to cover which we have borrowed from time to time sums which now aggregate a total cash borrowing of $16,947.48.

These latter items are not exhibited in the figures for the report covering the fiscal year of 1923, but grow out of that report, and are brought to the attention of the Convention for the purpose of stimulating the efforts of those responsible for meeting the obligations of the Diocese during the succeeding months of 1924.

Report of the Executive Council

As in recent years, this report will only note briefly the more important matters of accomplishment during the year, leaving the reports of the different Departments which will be published with this as the source from which more detailed information can be secured.

Department of Missions and Church Extension. For the year 1922 the Executive Council had available a surplus for new work of $11,100. To the Department of Missions there was awarded of this sum $4,000 towards the building of a rectory at Drexel Hill with the understanding that an Extension Call which should realize $3,500 additional would be made during the year 1923. This Call was made with the result anticipated, but on account of building conditions, the rectory has not yet been started. There was also awarded a contribution towards the principal and interest of the mortgage on Zion Church; these payments have been made and have encouraged additional contributions by the members of that parish.

It was evident during the year that owing to the larger percentage of divisible funds that was being sent to the National Council, there would be no surplus of Diocesan money for the year 1923 available for new work. On the other hand, there were certain new undertakings in the Diocese which required money. The Council has therefore resorted to a policy of borrowing money on mortgages where such moneys seemed absolutely necessary; where title to properties was in the Trustees of the Diocese, they have assented to the mortgages when the Council was able to promise that the payment of interest on the mortgages would be assumed as a Diocesan obligation. By these means, the first story of the long-needed parish house for St. Barnabas' Mission, Germantown, has at last been secured and is almost completed, and arrangements have been made for the erection of a parish house for St. Gabriel's Mission, and also for the Mission at Glenside which is under the control of St. Peter's, Weldon. Finally, without so far requiring a mortgage, a property has been secured at the corner of Rhawn Street and Eastwood Avenue for the erection of a Church.

A new problem was presented by the request of the House of Prayer for Diocesan support in its effort to improve its property. Being a parish, the Diocese was not able to give it direct assistance, and yet it was quite clear that similar needs may arise in parishes which have no greater ability to furnish the means than have missions, and the Council has appointed a special committee to deal with this new problem in the large, and to evolve a suitable Diocesan policy.

The Exchange Sunday was continued during the year 1923 with considerable success; over thirty rectors of our parishes exchanged pulpits on Whitsunday with Diocesan missionaries, and it is proposed to continue such exchange in the future.

Department of Religious Education. This Department has been reorganized in personnel during the past year, and is beginning to function more actively. It is still felt that an Executive Secretary is essential if the matters which the Department has under consideration are to be effectively consummated, and definite plans looking toward this end will soon be presented.

The Sunday School Lenten Offering for 1923 was $60,834.82; it is hardly necessary to add that this figure again establishes a new record in the Diocese, and that it far exceeds the like offerings in any other Diocese.

Department of Christian Social Service and Institutions. The two Departments of Christian Social Service and Institutions were consolidated by the action of the Convention of 1923, and the combined Department has been in active operation since the fall of that year.

The Department, now made up of a much enlarged membership, has subdivided itself into a number of committees, each of them charged with a single problem of Social Service.

The Community Center at Morrisville has been practically completed, the Diocese having contributed $10,000 in cash, and having assumed the responsibility for a mortgage of $15,000 additional. A new Board of Managers has been created including, as planned, representatives of various community interests at Morrisville, and there is every prospect of the Community House realizing the ideals of those who were so interested in its success.

An important step has been taken with reference to the relation of the Department to the Diocesan Institutions. Miss Carpenter, of the Department of Christian Social Service of the National Council, has been employed to spend several months in the Diocese making careful surveys of our Diocesan Institutions. At the date of this report, only two of the institutions have been so reported upon, namely, St. John's House and the Church Home for Children, but in each of them certain important problems of policy have existed, and the reports made by Miss Carpenter, it is believed, will aid much in the proper solution of those problems. Of course, the relations of the Council to the various institutions are very different, depending very much on the financial obligations of the Diocese with respect to each of them; nevertheless, the Department feels that almost regardless of financial support, it is entitled to have intimate knowledge of the operations of all Diocesan Institutions, and the Department feels confident that any recommendations that it may make as the result of such survey will receive most careful consideration at the hands of the institutions affected. In the cast of St. John's House the survey showed the need of a much-increased contribution by the Diocese if the work there is to be adequately maintained; it will, of course, be a question for the Executive Council to decide how far it feels able to make the desired contribution.

Department of Finance. This Department also has been largely reorganized during the past year. Its Committees on Budget, Rev. Mr. Pember, Chairman, and on Quotas, Rev. Mr. Stockman, Chairman, have performed exceedingly valuable service continuously throughout the year.

The Budget Committee has reached the conclusion that it is hardly worth while in the spring of the year to submit to the Convention tentative estimates for the following calendar year; there will therefore be presented to the Convention this year not a detailed and more or less artificial budget for 1925, but the completed budget for 1924, with a suggestion to the Convention that it authorize the Council in the fall of 1924 to make such modifications in that budget as may make it available for 1925.

The Quota Committee has been in touch with representatives of most of the parishes, in some cases separately, but in many cases in groups. This method of conference has resulted in a better understanding by the representatives of many parishes of their share of the responsibility, and in some cases a definite assumption by some parishes of a larger financial obligation.

The question of a special appeal to meet the prospective deficit in Missions during the year arose as usual, but was handled in a different way. It was estimated in November that the Diocese would have a deficit of approximately $6,000, and that we would be short in our contributions to the National Council for Maintenance by over $100,000—in other words, that as against the sum called for from us of $299,000, we should probably only give from $180,000 to $190,000. The feeling was universal that the Diocese must make some special effort in order to diminish such deficit, and the plan adopted was the fixing of "Sacrifice Week" from January 20th to 27th for that purpose. The aid of the Woman's Auxiliary was invaluable in distributing information through the different Churches. The result was exceedingly satisfactory. A special contribution of $6,000 was made to meet the expected deficit of $6,000 in the Diocese itself, but owing to the fact that normal receipts for December were not as large as the previous year, in spite of this contribution, there was still a deficit of $6,053.59 in the Diocese proper when the books were closed. It is felt, however, that this deficit can be handled somehow during the coming year. As to contributions to the National Council, a sum of $61,175.29 after deducting all expenses was realized, with the net result that Pennsylvania is credited on the books of the National Council with a total of $239,180.03 for Maintenance; incidentally, this contribution is the largest amount credited to any Diocese for the year 1923.

Department of Property. The Convention of 1923 approved the plan for a Diocesan Insurance office. A corporation of which all the stock is owned by the Diocese has been formed, known as the "Church Insurance Service Inc." Its officers and directors are men who are largely interested in the matter and include a number of practical insurance men who are giving their services freely to the Diocese. The ultimate success of the undertaking will, of course, depend on the extent to which the various Churches are willing to assist by turning over their insurance to this new Diocesan office; the Department believes that it has large possibilities of usefulness if adequately supported by the Diocese at large.

The Department has also assisted in the transfer of the titles of mission properties to the Trustees of the Diocese, a large number of which have been accomplished during the year with the prospect of having them all transferred within a short time.

Department of Publicity. The report of the Department shows encouraging progress in the handling of the Diocesan News, which is growing in circulation and also in financial prosperity. The Department is proud of its paper, and urges the members of the Convention to give it their support.

Department of Church Pensions. During the year it developed that for various reasons arrears in the payment of Church Pension Fund Premiums on behalf of various clergymen in the Diocese not only existed, but under the regulations of the Church Pension Fund, threatened the payment of the sum of $1,000 now immediately made to widows of clergymen who were on the active list at the time of death. On this matter being called to the attention of the Council by the Department, and also by the Commission on Clerical Salaries, prompt arrangements were made for the payment of these arrears, partly out of the Sustentation Fund, and partly out of the general Diocesan funds, with the result that the arrears prior to 1923 were finally settled for with the Church Pension Fund. Immediately after the first of January, 1924, it developed that there were further arrears for 1923 which presented precisely the same problem, and which were met in the same way. This incident shows that there was here involved a question of policy as to the handling of such arrears in the future, and there will be presented to the Convention resolutions authorizing temporary deficits from year to year in the payment of premiums on behalf of different clergymen in the Diocese to be met from any surplus in the Sustentation Fund so as to prevent the calamity of the widow or family of any one clergyman, even though his premiums be paid in full, suffering because of the fact that there has been a default in the payment of premiums on behalf of some other clergyman in the Diocese.

The work of the year has shown that the Department of Church Pensions and the Commission on Clerical Salaries deal with very similar matter; it other words, a pension to a clergyman is simply a deferred salary, and there seems to be some inconsistency in having two distinct bodies dealing with two branches of the same subject. After full consideration, therefore, the Commission on Clerical Salaries and the Department of Church Pensions have agreed, and the Council has confirmed their agreement, to recommend to the Convention that both interests may hereafter be cared for by a separate commission to be known as "The Commission on Church Pensions and Clerical Salaries'" and appropriate legislation to this effect will be presented to the Convention.

It would be improper to close this branch of the report without referring to the notable services rendered by the Department of Pensions, especially by its Vice-Chairman, Dr. Washburn, and its Treasurer, Mr. Collier. They have given most careful attention to the almost innumerable problems involved in putting the Church Pension Fund system into effect in this Diocese, and are entitled to the hearty thanks, not only of every clergyman in the Diocese, but also of every layman who is interested in seeing that the clergymen are properly protected by the Church Pension Fund. It is sincerely hoped that their services may be availed of in connection with the increased membership of the Commission on Pensions and Clerical Salaries; the Diocese cannot afford to lose the services of such valuable and expert advisers.

General Financial Situation. The Treasurer's report is, on the whole, distinctly encouraging. The total amount received was $688,076.73, or approximately $57,000 more than the previous year, which in turn had been the largest total in the history of the Diocese. This gratifying result was due in part to the fact that the receipts from parishes and individuals increased $34,575.20, and partly to the fact that contributions for the special deficiency appeal increased $24,769.31 over the receipts for this item in the previous year. It is not, however, so satisfactory to have to report that the so-called divisible money (being that which is shared between the National Council and the Diocese) decreased from $322,659.82 in 1922 to $306,982.37 in 1923, a decrease of almost $16,000.00; the increase, of course, was in the non-divisible money which increased from $308,858.99 in 1922 to $381,094.36 in 1923, or over $72,000.00. The divisible money represents, of course, contributions for items on the Maintenance Budget of the Diocese of the General Church, and there is still need, as pointed out in last year's report, of approximately an increase of $100,000 in these divisible receipts before the Diocese can feel as if its finances are on a secure footing.

So far, however, as contributions to the work of the National Council are concerned, there was a very gratifying improvement. Owing to the increased percentage of divisible funds paid to the National Council, its share of divisible funds increased from $163,091.47 in 1922 to $178,004.74 in 1923, an increase of $14,913.27. In addition, the National Council benefited by the special appeal to the extent of $61,175.29 in 1923, as against $26,584.32 in 1922, an increase of almost $35,000. Finally, there was $7,469.13 of gifts for Priorities in 1923, as against none in 1922. The total, therefore, contributed to the National Council increased from $194,812.67 in 1922 to $246,649.16 in 1923, an increase of almost $52,000.00, and it is proper to add that the portion of this contributed for Maintenance of approximately $239,000 exceeded the contributions for Maintenance of any of the other Dioceses for the year 1923.

REPORT OF THE FINANCE DEPARTMENT TO THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

During the year 1923, the Finance Department was reorganized. A considerable number of new members were added and standing committees were appointed, on the Quota with the Rev. Percy R. Stockman as Chairman, and on the Budget with the Rev. G. E. Pember as Chairman. In addition, the Finance Department co-operated in the special appeal that was made to meet the missionary deficiency for 1923, so that it may be fairly said that the Department has functioned more actively than during any previous year and with better results.

The Budget Committee during the Spring of 1923 prepared the Budget for 1924; this was adopted by the Convention of 1923 with authority to the Council to make such changes as might be required in the Fall of 1923. Copy of the revised Budget is attached hereto.

The Budget Committee, and the Department as a whole, have reached the conclusion that it is hardly worth while in the Spring of a year to make tentative estimates for the following calendar year. It proposes, therefore, to present to the Convention this year the completed Budget for 1924 as the tentative Budget for 1925, with a like authorization to make necessary modifications in the Fall of 1924. It is hoped that the Convention will recognize that it is more practical for it to fix the Budget definitely through its own agency, the Executive Council, in the Fall of the year, rather than to attempt to fix it with any definiteness in the Spring.

The Quota Committee has been at work all through the year with most satisfactory results. Through its Chairman it has gotten in touch with representatives of most of the parishes, and it has also arranged for discussions of their Quota problems by the parishes which are geographically near to each other. The result has been not only a better understanding on the part of the Diocese and the parish of their actual responsibilities, but in many cases a definite assumption by the parishes of a larger share of the missionary obligations of the Diocese and the general Church. The Department believes that this will be reflected during the year 1924 in larger regular offerings from many of our parishes. A copy of certain reports and statements made by the Quota Committee from time to time is appended, as it is believed they will be of permanent value as records of methods which promise to be successful.

While not officially in charge of the effort to meet the missionary deficit, the Department contributed substantially towards that effort, as the Chairman of the Special Committee was a member of the Department, and a number of members of the Department served on the Special Committee. As no other Department can properly report upon the work of this Committee, and as that work was exceedingly important, it seems proper to refer to it briefly in this report. The Diocese fell short by about $12,000 of the sum needed to meet its own expenses and by $121,000 of the sum which it was called upon to contribute towards the Maintenance Budget of the National Council. In this predicament, the Committee on Deficit met and $6,000 (the amount then estimated to be sufficient for the purpose) was at once contributed towards the Diocesan deficit. The Committee, therefore, decided to lend its whole effort to reducing the anticipated deficit for General Missionary Work. Among the special steps that were resorted to was the bringing into the Diocese on two successive Sundays of a large number of missionary speakers, and the distribution of envelopes throughout the parishes and Missions, in which contributions were asked for the missionary deficit—the bulk of the contributions being collected during "Sacrifice Week." This plan was suggested by the Woman's Auxiliary, and a large part of the success was due to the faithful efforts of the Woman's Auxiliary and the Church Service League. The result of this effort was to realize for General Missions over $62,000; after deducting approximately $1,000 of expenses there was left $61,000, thus increasing our contributions for the Budget of the National Council to approximately $239,000. While this is still far below the $299,000 called for by the National Council, it is worth noting that it was the largest sum contributed by any single Diocese towards the Budget of the National Council. The Finance Department congratulates the Committee on Deficit and the Diocese at large in having taken such an effective step towards supplementing the regular offerings for Missions. It again reminds the Council and the Diocese that such special appeals will probably continue to be necessary until such time as the people of our Diocese learn to pledge and to give regularly the sums asked by the National Council for Maintenance. When it is remembered that in addition to the $239,180.03 contributed for Maintenance, our Diocese also contributed $54,468.74 for the Japanese Emergency Fund, besides $6,997.90 for "Specials," and $7,469.13 for various Priorities, making a total of $308,115.80 contributed for General Misionary purposes, it seems quite clear that the people in our Diocese are able to give for General Missions the sums called for by the National Council for Maintenance, and that the problem is not whether they can give the sum required, but how so to present the matter to them that they will be willing to respond.

In an effort to co-ordinate the contributions of the various Dioceses, particularly the larger ones, the Finance Department recommended to the Council, and the Council approved the recommendation, that our Diocese suggest to the National Council a conference at which methods of obtaining contributions for the National Council in the several larger Dioceses should be discussed, in order that each might gain the benefit of knowing the methods that were used successfully in others. This suggestion was passed on to the National Council; the Treasurer seemed to favor such conference, and it is hoped that one will be arranged in the not distant future. It is felt that the results of such conference ought to be helpful not only to the several Dioceses concerned, but also to the National Council in furnishing it with more exact information as to what sums it may reasonably count upon from the different Dioceses.

Pension Assessments and Interest on Assessments paid during 1923	$ 913,445.53
Total Pensions paid out from beginning of the Fund up to December 31, 1923	$2,368,608.00

The total grants paid by the Church Pension Fund proper now exceed those which have been paid on account of grants taken over from other funds merged with the Church Pension Fund. The annual valuation as of December 31, 1923, still shows about the same balance of resources over liabilities, indicating that the Fund is progressing at the end of seven years, in exact accordance with the plans as outlined at its inception.

From the inauguration of the Pension movement your present officers have had the privilege of serving the local brethren in this vital business. In presenting the account of our stewardship this year we rejoice in the notable success attained in providing for the needs of our clergy. No words would be adequate to paint the contrast between the conditions prior to 1917 and those of today and the assured future. The bare figures glow with deepest human emotions.

Criticisms of details, largely traceable to misunderstanding of a confessedly intricate enterprise, are but the incidental growing pains of a great undertaking and in no wise dampen the ardor of gratitude for the beneficent accomplishment.

It will be recalled that the first step taken by this Diocese was the appointment of a Pension Committee which carried us through the period of raising our considerable proportion of the Initial Reserve, enlisting the parishes in the payment of premiums and putting into operation methods which have found favor in other Dioceses.

When in 1919 the Executive Council was organized, and attention at the same time had been concentrated on the necessity for rectifying the provisions for Clerical Salaries, there was created the Department of Clerical Salaries and Pensions consisting of the two groups each addressing itself to its particular task, and keeping in mutually helpful association.

In 1921 the move was made to place the problems connected with the equitable adjustment of Clerical Salaries in the hands of a separate commission detached from the Executive Council; and consequently no longer in immediate contact with the Pension Department. The subsequent emphasis on the group system by the Pension Fund Trustees, in order to provide the gratuity to the widows of clergymen dying in active service, developed further complications; until the feeling now finds voice that there should be a reassociation again of the Clerical Salaries Commission and the Pension Department; and that this should be done by providing for their reunion outside of the Executive Council in a distinct commission, not subject to the system of rotation in office contemplated for the Council. The General Convention in organizing the National Council kept the Pension Fund as a distinct body; and thereby indicated the normal procedure for the Diocese. Some of us here hold consistently to the thought that eventually Pennsylvania will co-ordinate, if indeed it does not combine, its several agencies having to do with the important interest of clerical support.

For these reasons your Department herewith submits the recommendation that the handling of the Pension business be now dissociated from the Executive Council, and be reunited with that of the Clerical Salaries, that the two interests may be jointly cared for by the separate commission henceforth to be known as the Commission of Pensions and Clerical Salaries.

If this recommendation is adopted the Committee on Constitution and Canons will in due order present for consideration the necessary canonical changes to carry this into effect.

Your Department, in closing, desires to submit one further item for your action. The gratuity of $1,000 conditionally granted to the widows of clergymen dying in active service has proved a great blessing. We have ventured to urge upon the Trustees the desirability of distributing the funds available for this purpose in such manner as to provide a gratuity for the widow of every clergyman identified with the Pension Fund. It seems evident to us that the need of the widows of clergymen dying out of active service is even greater than that of the widows of the clergy dying in active service; and therefore that the former should have prior claim upon our consideration.

The amount of what is called pure surplus available for this gratuity may not be sufficient to allow for a grant of $1,000 to more than the latter, but may it not be divided in such wise as to permit a grant of $750 or $500 or some other equal sum to be awarded to both groups? Is it not within the power of the Trustees to so amend their own rule?

With ready appreciation of the fine step thus far taken, and with all due respect we suggest the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania endorses the action of its Pension Department in urging the Trustees of the Pension Fund to so amend their rules as to provide a gratuity to the widow of every clergyman identified with the system.

For the Department,
LOUIS C. WASHBURN.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

To the Executive Council:

In submitting this report covering the operations of your Department of Publicity for 1923 it is gratifying to note an increasing use that is being made of the Department's services. Apart from its purely publicity functions its work and activities have been so enlarged and broadened that we feel it is rendering a valued service along other lines.

Clergy and laity have reported its promptness in responding to request for advice and information and its willingness to be of service in any capacity possible. Your Chairman and members of the Department during the year have received communications from organizations in the Diocese expressing appreciation of its helpfulness.

Church News. The year 1923 has showed encouraging results in the operation of The Church News. Mr. Charles H. Clarke, its business manager, reports it closed the year with only a small deficit. At the same time it has produced a larger and better paper. It is unlikely there will be any need to call upon the Executive Council for any financial aid in 1924. Its circulation is increasing. It is now approximately 3000, with every evidence of a further increase. A number of the clergy are helping in this work. Others have promised to help.

Meetings in Church House. In performing its duties of assigning rooms in the Church House for meetings, the 1923 records show a slight increase over 1922 in such use of the rooms. During 1923 there were 664 meetings of all kinds for which assignments to rooms were made in advance of the meetings. Approximately fifty other meetings were held, of which the Department received no information in advance. All of these were, however, provided with accommodations. In several instances there was a lack of comfortable accommodations for large meetings.

Through the courtesy of the Rector and Vestry of Holy Trinity Church and the Rector and Vestry of St. James'

Church, the parish buildings of those churches were opened for a number of meetings of Diocesan organizations where the Church House facilities were inadequate or where the Church House rooms had been engaged for other meetings. The Department desires to record and report its appreciation of this helpfulness.

While the Church House at present meets all immediate needs for meetings the Department would call the attention of the Executive Council to the desirability of utilizing the yard space for an auditorium that might be able to take care of large Diocesan gatherings, so constructed that it could be divided into separate rooms.

Church Extension Fund. In April, at the direction of the Bishop, the Director of the Department took over the duties of Secretary of The Church Extension Fund. Since, he has prepared and issued each of the Quarterly Calls and is performing other secretarial duties. The Executive Office receives all money and keeps an account with each individual subscriber and contributor. There are approximately 1000 subscribers. In 1922, the total gross receipts were $11,158.91. In 1923 the total amounted to $10,433.75, with payments still coming in.

Diocesan Exchange Bureau. This branch of the Department's service, started two years ago, continues to function successfully. Since its beginning it has put into use in parishes and missions of the Diocese many hundreds of dollars' worth of church furniture and furnishings which had been discarded by other parishes. This bureau is operated at no expense. Its services cost nothing. All it asks is the opportunity to be of service.

General Publicity. The Department's relations with the newspapers continue to be most cordial. In their allotment of space to the news of the Diocese and parishes they have been most generous. Virtually all Church publicity directed, inspired or furnished by the Department has been used with appreciation of its news value and with proper dignity and reverence. Increasing use is being made by newspapers and press associations of the Department as means for obtaining authentic information. The Department continues to furnish news copy regularly to the Church weeklies and also to parishes whenever requested. It also serves as Diocesan correspondent of the National Department of Publicity.

Welfare Federation. It was the privilege of the Department, through its Director, to again serve in an advisory capacity on the Publicity Committee of the Welfare Federation in the preparation of plans for the Federation's 1923 campaign. With the approval of your Chairman, the Director has accepted reappointment for 1924.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) JOHN J. COLLIER,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

To the Executive Council:

It is often customary to report "progress"—merely to cover a multitude of sins of non-accomplishment.

It would be more accurate for this Department to report "marking time" and the military simile would be fairly apt. For a company of soldiers marking time awaits a further command to "march," which command is given when the commissary and other departments have provided the necessary equipment or cleared the ground for action.

The feet of the Department of Religious Education "are shod with the preparation of the Gospel of Peace" but the shoes have been worn out "marking time" and awaiting further supplies—the various other parts of the Christian armor have grown dull or blunt with enforced lack of use. The training ground has been worn into ruts by the routine movements of the Department, tied by a rope of very limited length.

The Department has been charged (implicitly, for it has received no definite instructions from the Council)—to make bricks, symbolizing the Christian education of some 35,000 pupils, and some 68,000 communicants of the Diocese, but the straw furnished is equivalent only to the amount needed for about two pupils in a good boarding school.

The Department created by the Council was organized with the customary officers, and various Commissions, all of which have performed routine duties.

The Commission on Church Schools reports a total Lenten offering for 1923 of $60,834, an increase of $3991 over 1922. It is noteworthy that the Church Schools of the Diocese thus contributed to the Mission of the Church about 20 per cent. of the total sum sent by the Diocese to the National Office.

The Commission Mission Study has conducted a large number of Study Classes in numerous parishes in the Diocese.

A Church Normal School, and other classes for the training of teachers have been held, with very small, but interested and regular attendance.

The Church School Service League has grown in the consciousness of the parishes, and a corresponding increase in activities is reported.

The Department was represented at the Annual Conference of Leaders in Religious Education, held in Omaha last spring, and at a meeting, held in Washington in February for the formation of a Provincial Young People's League.

While "marking time" the department has been engaged in a careful survey of the field within the Diocese, and a study of equipment maintained by other Dioceses for Religious Education.

A comparison of religious educational activities in this Diocese and in other Dioceses is quite unfavorable to Pennsylvania, which has lost her former prestige and leadership in this matter.

Our organization is well planned, but no one in the Department or in its Commissions can give the requisite time to put the plans into execution.

This condition is the crux of the whole situation.

A large number of other Dioceses have officials giving whole or part time to the task of religious education. Amongst those having whole-time officers are New Jersey, Newark, Long Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Washington, Southern Ohio, Michigan. Rhode Island, Delaware, Maryland, Georgia, Sacramento are amongst the Dioceses engaging secretaries for part time.

In these Dioceses the work of the Church Schools, and of religious education generally, has been greatly stimulated, and has become actually what all admit it is theoretically, a great power in the Diocese.

The Diocese of Oregon, with about 3000 enrolled in Church Schools and 5000 communicants, has recently increased its appropriation for religious education from $150 to $1000.

The Diocese of Massachusetts has a Church School enrollment of about 30,000, and 60,000 communicants. It appropriates for Religious Education $14,500 and engages four full-time workers.

The Diocese of Pennsylvania has a Church School enrollment of 35,000, with 68,000 communicants. It appropriates for Religious Education $1500, which is $500 less than the amount in the tentative budget adopted at the last Diocesan Convention.

The needs of the Department of Religious Education are (1) the awakening of the whole Diocese to the tremendous importance of Religious Education (in a large degree the answer to the portion of the Bishop's address to the clergy on "Religion and the Home") by a thorough consideration of the subject at the next Diocesan Convention, leading to, it is hoped, enthusiastic indorsement and support; (2) the appropriation of an adequate amount to enable existing work to be strengthened, and advance work to be undertaken; (3) the employment of a Supervisor of Religious Education for the Diocese, who shall have direction of the work, than which there is no more important in the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE AND INSTITUTIONS FOR 1923-1924

Our most important undertaking this year was the building of the Morrisville Community House, for which the Diocese appropriated $10,000 and obligated itself to pay $15,000 more. In this connection it is interesting to note that the amount already expended for the actual construction of the building is $29,000, the difference between what the Diocese appropriated and this amount representing local contributions. The cornerstone of the House was laid by the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D.D., in the presence of a distinguished and representative group of Churchmen and citizens on Sunday, October 7, 1923.

At this writing the structure approaches completion, and plans are under way for its dedication on April 22, 1924. It is expected that by the time this report is presented to the Diocesan Convention it will be in actual use. The Council of the Diocese appointed Colonel W. P. Barba, Clinton Rogers Woodruff, Deaconess J. W. Colesberry, Thomas B. Stockham, Rev. Thomas S. Cline and Dr. George Woodward. The local representatives and the organizations which they represent are as follows: William H. Howell, Post Commander American Legion; George W. Balderson, Chamber of Commerce; William S. Lair, Trustee of Morrisville School Board; Philip A. Case, Treasurer of Morrisville Trust Company; Mrs. Ralph M. Fox, Home and School League; Mrs. William Burgess, Jr., Red Cross. The Rev. Seaver M. Holden, in charge of the Mission, is ex-officio, a member of the Board, as is the Bishop of the Diocese.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers on Washington's Birthday, 1924, an organization was effected with Mr. Holden as Chairman, the Morrisville Trust Company as Treasurer and William H. Howell as Secretary and the following Executive Committee: Thomas B. Stockham, Mrs. Ralph M. Fox and William H. Howell, and Mr. Holden ex-officio. The following By-Laws were adopted.

I. The name shall be the MORRISVILLE COMMUNITY HOUSE.

II. The title shall be vested in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

III. The building shall be held in trust for the use of such local organizations and societies as have for their object the welfare of the community of Morrisville and for such entertainments and amusements as are consistent with the moral welfare of its people.

IV. The maintenance, oversight, direction and control of the building shall be vested in a Governing Board to be composed as follows: The Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, President ex-officio; the Rector of Church of Incarnation at Morrisville, chairman ex-officio; six persons to be appointed by the Executive Council of the Diocese; and one representative from each of the following organizations in Morrisville: the School Board; the Chamber of Commerce; the Library Association; the Home and School League; the American Legion and the Red Cross. Five members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

V. The Chairman of the Board shall preside at all meetings, but shall not have a vote except in case of a tie. The Board shall meet on the third Monday of each month; Special Meetings may be called by the Chairman or by three members of the Board.

VI. In the absence of the Chairman a temporary Chairman may be appointed by the Board.

VII. The other officers of the Board shall be a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Treasurer, however, may be elected from outside the membership of the Board if so desired.

VIII. The active management of the House shall be in the hands of an Executive Committee of three, with the Chairman ex-officio a member.

IX. These By-Laws may be amended by a majority of the Governing Board after two weeks notice in writing to each member.

In connection with the furnishing of the House the Department desires to place on record its sincere appreciation of the co-operation of the Church Periodical Club through its Chairman, Mrs. A. F. Kempton, through whose efforts a library of over 2500 volumes was collected.

This being the first year of the reunited departments of Christian Social Service and Institutions, a very considerable portion of our time has been of necessity devoted to a discussion of policy. Now that so many of our Church institutions are financially provided for in the budget of the Welfare Federation the problems confronting the Department have assumed a different aspect. The former Department of Institutions made a personal non-expert survey of Church Institutions, which has been at our disposal, but it was felt that a more thorough and comprehensive examination of these institutions should be made with a view to formulating definite, Diocesan policies with regard to activities and administration. To this end overtures were made to the Department of Christian Social Service of the National Council and arrangements made for securing the services of Miss Mildred P. Carpenter, the Institutional Secretary of that Department. Miss Carpenter began her work in the Diocese in February, 1924, and is still engaged in making a careful, sympathetic, detailed survey of those institutions which are either under the direct control of the Diocese or bear the Church's name or receive the approval or consent of the Church in some form or other. A number of the reports on the individual Institutions have already been completed and are now being considered by the sub-committee with the representatives of the Institutions reported upon. As the survey will not be completed until after Easter and perhaps not until the Diocesan Convention, it is not possible for the Department to report more in this connection than "very satisfactory progress."

(Unfortunately Miss Carpenter has broken down and is now in the hospital, so our work in this behalf is temporarily at a standstill.)

Among the miscellaneous activities of the Department special reference must be made to the attention being given to the subject of motion pictures. The Department is represented through one of its members (Mrs. Thomas Potter, Jr.) in the various movements in the city and State dealing with the social service phases of this question. Arrangements are pending by which there will be published in THE DIOCESAN NEWS a list of approved pictures representing the judgment of the welfare workers in this connection. There has also been co-operation in connection with the National movement for the Federal control of motion pictures.

Plans are in preparation for a more active co-operation between the several Dioceses of the State through the Central Committee of Christian Social Service so that the work in connection with legislation during the session of the State Legislature of 1925 will be carried on with more vigor and effectiveness than has heretofore been possible. The Chairman of this Central Committee is the Rev. Paul S. Atkins, Rector of St. John's Church, York, Pa.

Record should be made of the faithfulness with which the members of the Department attend its meetings and the meetings of its sub-committees, the average attendance being large and the interest keen.

(Signed) CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF,
Vice-Chairman.

APPENDIX L.

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese

The Register acknowledges the following gifts:

From the Lutheran Theological Seminary of Mt. Airy an old manuscript book the title of which is "synopsis of the Annual Association Services held in Grace Church, March, 1843." Grace Church here referred to was formerly situated on Twelfth street north of Market and was one of the prominent parishes of this Diocese. I do not know whether the "Annual Association," was a parochial or Diocesan organization. I would be glad to obtain some information about this association.

An ancient record of the first meeting held for the purpose of organizing Trinity Church, Southwark, with some records of the work and progress of the Parish from 1815 to 1827. These papers were presented by the Right Reverend Thomas J. Garland, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, to whom they were given by Mrs. Mortimer Brown, who inherited them from her father, Mr. William S. Price, former Chancellor of the Diocese.

A photograph of the Reverend Mr. Dennison, a former rector of S. Timothy's Church, Roxborough, presented by Mr. J. Vaughan Merrick.

Parish newspapers have been received from S. Thomas', Whitemarsh; S. Thomas', Philadelphia; S. Philip's; St. Mark's, Frankford; Grace, Mt. Airy; St. Clement's; the Saviour, West Philadelphia; St. Simeon's, Emmanuel, Marlborough; the Covenant; S. George's, Richmond; Christ, Pottstown; All Saints, Wynnewood. These papers are valuable contributions to the historical records of these Parishes and are therefore most welcome gifts.

Much credit is due to the Committee on Parochial History for their earnest and persistent efforts to arouse an interest in historical matters and to collect data relating to the parishes of this Diocese. Gifts made to this Committee are carefully filed and preserved in the archives of the registrar.

When the Church House at Twelfth and Walnut Street was sold and the headquarters of the Diocese were established at the present location, many old papers and books formerly in the Bishop's office were turned over to the registrar. Many of these have not as yet been arranged and classified. It is hoped that this work may be finished before the end of another year.

The registrar also reports that he has performed the usual duties of giving certified copies of records in the old Parish registers of which he is the custodian and of making searches for persons who wished to obtain a particular line of data.

A. H. HORD,
Registrar of the Diocese.

May 6, 1924.

APPENDIX M.

Report of Committee on Parochial History

The Committee has continued to collect all the information it can in regard to the several Parishes of the Diocese, and file it away for future reference. A few of the Clergy send in regularly copies of their Parish Papers, and those sent to the Diocesan Library are eventually turned over to the custody of this Committee. It has three scrap books of newspaper clippings in process of construction, one containing pictures and histories of Parishes, another accounts of current ecclesiastical events, and one of obituary notices of prominent clergymen and laymen and women of the Diocese.

The Committee finds it very difficult to interest the clergy even in the history of their own parishes. They do not realize how valuable what information they could secure now, would become in the future.

On behalf of the Committee,
G. WOOLSEY HODGE, Chairman.

May 6, 1924.

APPENDIX N

Report of the Commission on Clerical Salaries

The Commission on Clerical Salaries submits its Annual Report together with that of the Treasurer of the Sustentation Fund.

We are paying this year part of the salaries of the rectors of twenty parishes. A list of those parishes and the amount appropriated to each is appended to this report. The total appropriations to salaries for the year will amount to $11,083.10, an average of $541.50 per parish aided. The parishes themselves are paying $28,613.56, an average of $1,430.68 per parish.

In addition to these amounts the parishes are paying on their share (and the Commission on its share) of the salaries the necessary Pension Fund assessments. There are three exceptions to this general rule. In one case the rector is not a member of the Pension System. In another the Commission for good reasons is temporarily paying the whole Pension assessment, there being a strong possibility that these sums will be returned by the parish later on. In the third case the Commission is paying the full assessment but deducting the amount from the appropriation of the parish. In this connection it may properly be reported that the Commission expended something over four thousand dollars during the year to meet arrearages of Pension assessments on clergy whose salaries have in part been paid by the Commission. We did this, in part to protect them and their families, and in part to protect the other clergy who, under the group system of the Pension Fund, would be adversely affected by the failure of any of the group to keep the assessment paid.

The total estimated for the regular Pension assessments for this year is $1,178.80. This makes the total estimated disbursements of the Sustentation Fund for 1924 $12,231.70. The Commission again calls the attention of the Convention to the gratifying fact that this expenditure is far below the original estimates. And again we gladly give the credit for this to the helpful co-operation of the parishes in increasing the amounts they pay toward clerical salaries.

Acting on the resolution adopted by the last Diocesan Convention, the Commission has recently recommended to four parishes that they voluntarily assume the status of missions and come more directly under the supervision of the missionary authorities. It should be understood that this does not involve the surrender of parish charters, the authority of the Vestry over property, or the loss of seat, voice and vote in the Convention. It means that the right to electing the rector is waived, and he becomes the annual appointee of the Bishop, and that the general supervision of the work is under the direction of the missionary authorities. None of the four parishes involved pay as much as $900.00 toward their rector's salary. This condition has been one of many years' standing. That means that considerably more than half the support of the clergyman comes from the Diocese. Such a condition clearly indicates a missionary enterprise which should be directly under the missionary authority of the Diocese. At the time of preparing this report one of the parishes had made practical compliance with the recommendation some time ago. St. Martin's parish, Marcus Hook, is unwilling to accept the recommendation. No replies have been as yet received from the others, St. James' Parish, Evansburg, and St. Mark's Parish, Honeybrook.

Mr. William H. Reeves has notified the Commission that he feels obliged to decline to allow his name to be put in nomination for another term of service on the Commission. He gives as his reason a fact which none of us suspected, that he has reached an age when he may fairly ask to be relieved and his work undertaken by a younger man. The Commission feels bound even in a report like this, to put on record some mark of appreciation of Mr. Reeves' service to the Diocese on this Commission as well as the very high regard of his fellow members of the Commission for him. No one has been more wise and loving in his concern for the proper remuneration of the clergy. And no one on the Commission has been more loyal to this cause, more faithful to the duties imposed, or more eager and zealous in performing them. His whole spirit and attitude has been an inspiration and his practical wisdom most helpful. The clergy of the Diocese will never know how much they owe to the wisdom and affection of Mr. Reeves.

The Commission offers the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries be authorized to assess the parishes and missions of the Diocese in a sum not exceeding $20,000.00 for the purposes of the Sustentation Fund for 1925.

Respectfully submitted,

GILBERT PEMBER, Chairman.

APPENDIX O

Report of Committee on Financing Cathedral Enterprises

The Committee appointed at the Convention of 1923 to confer with the Cathedral Chapter and with the Executive Council of the Diocese and submit to the next Convention information and recommendations as to the financing of the Cathedral enterprises respectfully report:

That they have had a number of conferences with a Committee of the Executive Council and a Committee of the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ and find that the cathedral enterprises, as set forth by the Chapter, embrace:

1. The maintenance of appropriate religious services, including conferences and other Diocesan functions.
2. The promotion of education.
3. Missionary work (including social service) throughout the Diocese.
4. Providing Missioners to preach and conduct missions throughout the Diocese.

In order to further these ends, the Chapter has kept in view as its immediate object the establishment of a Cathedral Foundation Fund of sufficient amount to insure adequate compensation to a staff of workers in all four fields of its activity, as above defined.

It has made use of a small Church as a Pro-Cathedral, which was offered to it with a partial endowment fund, yielding something toward its support, but the Chapter considers this as a temporary arrangement only, which may be superseded at any time, if another more suitable Church and adequate funds for its maintenance can be secured.

While the income available to the Chapter is as yet insufficient to enable it to undertake the larger and more important work of promoting education, missions and preaching throughout the Diocese, the Chapter has no desire at this time to ask for any direct contribution toward its current expenses. It does appeal, however, for general support in its effort to increase the Foundation Fund by at least $250,000 at the earliest date.

The Committee concur in the opinion of the Chapter that, until this addition to its endowment has been secured, the Chapter cannot undertake to meet the needs of the Diocese in the fields where it can be most useful, and the Committee consider that the purpose of the Chapter to secure this sum by the voluntary gifts and bequests of those who are or may become interested in this inspiring project, constitutes at this time satisfactory plan for financing the Cathedral enterprises.

JNO. J. COLLIER,
Secretary of Joint Committee.

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA

TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1924.

The Special Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled as above, pursuant to a call issued by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Thomas James Garland, D.D., D.C.L., Bishop Suffragan of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. J. DeWolf Perry, D.D., the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, S.T.D., and the Rev. Francis M. Taitt, S.T.D.

The offering for the missionary deficit in connection with "Sacrifice Week," amounted to $212.07.

The Special Convention was called to order by the Bishop Suffragan at 10.55 A. M.

The Secretary read the call for the meeting of the Special Convention as follows:

CHURCH HOUSE, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

November 19, 1923.

To the Clergy and Church Wardens in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

WHEREAS: The resignation of THE RT. REV. PHILIP MERCER RHINELANDER, D.D., LL.D., D.C.L., as Bishop of this Diocese, was accepted by the House of Bishops on November 14, 1923.

Now Therefore, by the joint action of the Bishop Suffragan and the Standing Committee and in accordance with Article III of the Constitution and Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, we hereby call a special Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania to meet in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, at 9.30 A. M. on the 22nd day of January, 1924, for the purpose of electing a Bishop of the Diocese and for such other business as may properly come before said Convention.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 19th day of November in the year of our Lord, 1923, and the 13th year of my Consecration.

(Signed) THOMAS J. GARLAND,
Bishop Suffragan of Pennsylvania.
[SEAL.]

J. DEWOLF PERRY,
President of the Standing Committee.
[SEAL.]

Attest:
RICHARD J. MORRIS
Secretary of the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Secretary read a Report as follows:

The Secretary of the Convention reports

That in accordance with Canon III, Section II, 2, he sent out notices under date of November 19, 1923, of the Special Convention of the Diocese to be held on January 22, 1924, to every Clergyman canonically resident in the Diocese, enclosing in the proper envelopes the similar notice for the Church Wardens of every Parish in union with the Convention, as set forth in Appendix C, JOURNAL, 1923, together with the blank forms for the election of Lay Deputies;

That in accordance with Canon II, Section II, 1, he has received from the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese the prima facie List of Clergy entitled to seats and votes at the Special Convention, herewith submitted;

That in accordance with Canon III, Section II, 1, he has compiled the prima facie List of Lay Deputies entitled to seats and votes in the Special Convention, herewith submitted. Of the 139 Parishes in union with the Convention all have qualified, excepting St. Luke, Chadds Ford, and St. Mary, Philadelphia.

In order to determine accurately the presence of a Quorum it will be advisable to call the Roll of Clergy and Parishes. This will serve also to inform those present of their right to vote, so that challenges can be referred at once to the Committees on Claims to Seats, hereafter to be appointed; but it should not interfere with the usual method of registration in the boxes provided for that purpose in the vestibule.

The names of the Lay Deputies who answer to the Roll Call will be those entitled to vote. If an Alternate Deputy is to take the place of a Regular Deputy, notice must be given when the name of the Regular Deputy is called, so that the Alternate Deputy may be placed on the List of Lay Deputies. When the name of the Alternate Deputy is thus inserted he shall have all the power and authority of the Regular Deputy whose place he takes and shall serve for the balance of the session of the Special Convention. If an Alternate Deputy desires to take the place of a Regular Deputy at any time after the Roll Call, he should present a Certificate stating, that he is taking the place of the Regular Deputy for the session of this Convention.

The President made a statement as follows:

In making up the Canonical List of Clergy it is my duty to present to the Convention a prima facie List containing the name of every Clergyman entitled to vote at the last Annual Convention, removing the names of those who have died and of those who have received a Letter Dimissory since that date, and adding the names of those who have become entitled to a seat and vote since the last Annual Convention in accordance with the Constitution and Canons.

There are on this List, herewith submitted, the names of five Clergymen, who have removed from, but are still canonically resident in, the Diocese of Pennsylvania, as they have not as yet received a Letter Dimissory. I have advised each one of them that their right to vote can be challenged by any member of the Convention, in which case it will be referred to the Committee on Claims of Clergy to Seats.

The Bishop Suffragan retired from the Chair, appointing the Rev. J. DeW. Perry, D.D. to act as President during his temporary absence.

The Secretary called the Roll, 200 Clergymen and 129 Parishes responding to their names.

The President pro-tem appointed the following Committees:

Claims of Clergy to Seats: the Rev. L. C. Washburn, the Rev. G. N. Holcomb, the Rev. L. M. Robinson.

Claims of Laity to Seats: Messrs. J. W. Bayard, C. E. Beury, L. J. Morris.

The Rev. T. L. Gossling, for the COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS, reported that the plan for seating the Deputies was the same as at the last Annual Convention, and that luncheon had been provided for all members of the Special Convention in the Parish House of the Church of The Holy Trinity.

The Rev. L. C. Washburn, for the STANDING COMMITTEE, offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the salaries and allowances for the Bishops, as already fixed, be continued.

The Rev. L. N. Caley, for the Committee on DISPATCH OF BUSINESS, offered the following Resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the hours of meeting be from 9.30 A. M. to 1.00 P. M. and from 2.30 P. M. to 5.30 P. M.
2. Resolved, That after reports have been received from the Committees on Claims to Seats, if there be any such reports, nominations for Bishop of the Diocese be made from the floor of the Convention without any remarks, and that the names of those nominated be handed in writing to the Secretary of the Convention.
3. Resolved, That after the conclusion of the nominations and the appointment of Tellers the Convention shall engage in silent prayer for a period, to be followed by the recitation of the Veni Creator Spiritus.
4. Resolved, That the Convention then proceed to ballot as usual, in the ballot boxes provided for that purpose, and that at the conclusion of the balloting the ballots shall be read and counted in open Convention by the Tellers.

The Rev. J. C. Mockridge offered the following Amendment to Resolution 2:

Resolved, That there be no nomintaion speeches; but that upon the close of the nominations and after a period of silent prayer the Convention go into Committee of the Whole for discussion and conference.

Mr. Harold Goodwin offered the following Resolution, which was adopted on division, Ayes 346, Noes 183:

Resolved, That the Amendment be laid on the table.

Mr. S. F. Houston offered the following Amendment:

Resolved, That in Resolution 4 all after the seventh word, "ballot," be stricken out.

The noon hour having arrived, the President pro-tem, bade the Convention to Prayer for Missions.

Dr. Caley accepted the Amendment to Resolution 4.

On motion, each of the first three Resolutions were adopted as read.

On motion, Resolution 4 was adopted as amended.

THE COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF CLERGY TO SEATS

reported that they have considered the claim to a seat and vote advanced by the Rev. Henry Bedinger and by the Rev. G. A. Scarinci, and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

1. Resolved, That the Rev. Henry Bedlinger be given a seat and vote in the Special Convention.
2. Resolved, That the Rev. G. A. Scarinci be not given a seat and vote in the Special Convention.

The Rev. A. R. Van Meter offered the following Resolution, which was adopted on division, Ayes 296, Noes 147.

Resolved, That Resolution 2 of the Committee be reconsidered.

Mr. Van Meter offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Rev. G. A. Scarinci be given a seat and vote in the Special Convention.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy as follows:

CANON II, SECTION VI. Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of this Convention.

THE COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS

reported that no claims had been submitted to them.

The Chair appointed the Tellers as follows:

For the Clerical Vote: The Revs. S. L. Gilberson, George Copeland, E. G. Knight, A. H. Lucas, N. B. Groton, W. A. Matos, J. A. Richardson, Jr.

For the Parish Vote: Messrs. L. B. Runk, F. H. Longshore, W. J. Dickson, L. J. Morris, H. C. Lawser, H. A. James, J. W. Wister, George Hall, Charles Cain, Charles Sinkler.

The Secretary read instructions for voting as follows:

Clergy: A – L inclusive at Chancel end of South aisle.
M – Z inclusive at Chancel end of North aisle.

Parishes: Suburban at entrance to North Aisle.
Advocate, Philadelphia to St. George at entrance to Center aisle.
St James, Hestonville to Zion, Philadelphia, at entrance to South aisle.

Each Parish has but one vote, determined by a majority of the Deputies present; if the Deputies reach no agreement, the vote of that Parish is lost.

Nominations being in order, the following named Clergymen were presented for nomination and appointed as Bishop of Pennsylvania:

Name	Presented by
The Rt. Rev. Thomas James Garland, D.D., D.C.L.	The Rev. F. W. Tomkins, S.T.D.
The Rev. Ernest Milmore Stires, D.D.	The Rev. L. C. Washburn, S.T.D.
The Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, D.D., LL.D.	The Rev. G. E. Pember
The Rev. Joseph Wilson Sutton, D.D.	The Rev. W. N. Parker
The Rev. Edward Miller Jefferys, D.D.	The Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge, D.D.

Dr. Jefferys requested permission to withdraw his name.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Nominations be closed for this ballot; and that, if more than one ballot shall prove to be necessary, additional Nominations shall be in order prior to any subsequent ballot or ballots.

The Veni Creator Spiritus was sung, followed by a period of silent prayer.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention do now proceed to ballot and that the polls be open for thirty minutes.

The polls were declared open until 1.30 P. M.

On motion the Convention took a recess until 2.45 P. M.

RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary.

The Fourth Annual Report

OF THE

Department of Missions

OF THE

Executive Council

To the Executive Council:

The Department of Missions has one supreme need, and that is an adequate fund from which it can purchase sites for new missions, assist in erecting suitable buildings for such missions, and strengthen existing missions by providing them either with a church or parish building.

Some advance work was undertaken by the Department during 1923, as will be shown in another part of this report, but it does not begin to represent what should have been done had there been sufficient funds with which to work. As the child is father to the man, so the mission is the future parish in embryo. While some of the old parishes within the city limits, notably in the downtown districts, have been discontinued, and while many others have been decreasing in membership, due to the encroachment of business upon residential districts and to the growth of the foreign population, the Diocese has not by any means made up for this loss by establishing a sufficient number of places of worship in newer sections of the city. In the northeastern part of Philadelphia the growth has been phenomenal within the past five years, but the Church has done little to keep pace with this development. In West Philadelphia a new city has arisen during the last fifteen years, and yet, with the exception of a mission for colored people, no new mission has been established there for the last seventeen years.

There has recently been a remarkable development of the suburban districts and thousands of residents have moved from the city to make their homes in these new towns. These towns are permanent and are destined to become thickly settled communities in the near future. As they expand it will become increasingly difficult to secure suitable sites for missions, and the cost of ground will become almost prohibitive.

Three years ago the Department of Missions, after careful study, decided that priority should be given the following:

(a) Financial assistance towards the erection of a church building for Trinity, Collingdale.
(b) That a rectory should be built at Drexel Hill.
(c) The opening of a mission in the neighborhood of Fifty-sixth Street and Springfield Avenue.
(d) A new mission in the Tabor section.
(e) A new mission in the Northwood section.

This is the deliberate judgment of your Department, but without funds with which to begin this work its hands are hopelessly tied.

The Diocese of Pennsylvania has long been known throughout the Church for its generous gifts to general missions, but while it has been supporting such work outside, it has been giving little for the establishing of new mission work within its own borders. This neglect is already felt by the Department of Missions, and unless it is corrected, and that very soon, it will prove fatal to the interests of the Church in many a community.

In 1903 a large fund was raised in the Diocese by private subscription for the purchase of land for new missions, and for the erection of buildings for missions. Such a fund at this time would enable your Department to do great things in a missionary way in the Diocese. We recommend, therefore, that a committee of laymen be appointed by the Executive Council to raise by private subscription not less than $100,000 for buildings required for existing missions, and for the purchase of sites for new missions.

The Church Extension Fund

During the year 1923, through the Church Extension Fund, financial aid was given to three pieces of forward work in the Diocese. The January call was designated for a parish house for St. Giles' Church, Stonehurst; the April call for a rectory for the Mission of the Incarnation at Drexel Hill; and the call in October for the Church community house at Morrisville.

The year's income from the three calls amounted to $10,429. By the appointment of the Bishop, Mr. Samuel H. Warnock of the Department of Publicity has been the Secretary of this Fund since March, 1923, and the accounting work is being done in the executive office. The number of subscribers to the Fund now approximates 1000.

The Colored Work

According to the report of the government census bureau issued in March, the colored population of Philadelphia is 233,000, or greater than any city in the country except New York. Now what work is the Church doing among this race in the Diocese?

There are three independent parishes with a combined communicant list of 1216. There are four chapels connected with parishes having 1310 communicants. Within the city four missions are being conducted for colored people, with 613 communicants.

Outside the city we have four missions, the communicants numbering 123. The total communicant list of these fifteen congregations is 3262. Their Church Schools have 1450 scholars.

In this city one colored person in every seventy belongs to the Episcopal Church, and the Church School scholars are in the ratio of about one for every 160. The vast majority of these people in Philadelphia are outside the influence of any religious body.

We have at present five colored missionaries in the Diocese besides the Rev. Dr. Phillips. These priests are being assisted by three lay readers. The situation demands a much more vigorous interest in the work among these people.

Work Among the Foreign-Born

The work among the foreign-born in the Diocese has prospered under the direction of Archdeacon White and the racial committee. Few are aware of the greatness of the field and of our opportunity. Already in this city the native American and his children are in a decided minority. Of this enormous body of people of foreign birth or parentage, the census shows that only 27 per cent have behind them an English-speaking ancestry! An unusual opportunity is given us to minister to the many thousands who are practically unchurched through their inability to understand our language, and to mold the coming generation more closely to American ideals.

Our work among these people is not of a proselytizing character, nor is it misleading any by the suppression of our own principles.

In South Philadelphia work is being done among the Italians at L'Emmanuello, and through a trained worker who visits among the Italians in public institutions. In North Philadelphia we have a small but extremely vigorous work at St. Mary's of the Annunciation which could be greatly enlarged at comparatively small expense.

Our Polish Church of the Advent on Fifth Street near Buttonwood Street labors quietly but effectively. The congregation has done much during the past year to repair and beautify the old house of worship. The congregation of the Holy Redeemer still worships on the upper floor of the parish house of St. George's, Richmond. A church building for these devoted people is the greatest of our needs in the foreign work. With it the congregation would be almost immediately self-supporting. Its day school of over 100 pupils is solving successfully the problem of systematic week-day religious instruction for the children.

The Hebrew Christian Synagogue

The Hebrew Christian Synagogue, located at 517 N. Fifth Street, which is the center of the Church's mission to the Jews in the Diocese, continued during the year its work among this race. Services were held every Sunday and Friday evening in the Jews' own language and were well attended. Evening classes in English were held during the week.

A Church School is conducted by Miss Mary Ormsby on Sunday afternoon, and classes are held during the week for the children. A successful daily vacation Bible school was conducted last summer.

Mr. John Solomon, the missionary in charge, is most faithful in visiting Jewish families in all parts of the city, and considerable interest has been aroused in the teaching of Jesus Christ.

Special Appropriations

The Department of Missions during 1923 recommended to the Executive Council the following appropriations:

(a) For mission building at Glenside $1000, and $600 a year for interest on a mortgage of $10,000 on the building.

(b) Interest guaranteed on a mortgage of $10,000, for a period not exceeding five years, on the parish house for St. Barnabas' Mission, Germantown.

(c) Interest for five years guaranteed on $10,000 mortgage for a parish building for St. Gabriel's Mission, Feltonville.

(d) For the repair of the property of St. George's Mission, Venango, $2000.

(e) An option was secured on a plot of ground at Rhawn Street and Eastwood Avenue for a new mission.

THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The Dean's Report

Considerable progress has been made in the missions of the Convocation of Chester. Collingdale has continued to advance under the able and spiritual influence and leadership of the Rev. Henry Davies, D.D. There has been a great increase in the congregations attending public service and a greater increase in interest in the future of the Church in this growing community. A parish building, as the first of the group of buildings, has been given the first priority place on the budget, and already the call of the Extension Fund has gone out for this purpose. There is a great opportunity before the Church in this community.

All Saints', Darby, is numerically the largest mission in our Convocation. While it is doing a splendid work in the borough and has a fine location and a good parish building, the time has come for the erection of a church building, if it is to take its place with the edifices of the other religious bodies. The people are not able to do this unaided. They have plenty of land and a commanding location.

The same wonderful interest and great activity that have characterized the Mission of the Incarnation, Drexel Hill, in the past, have been evident in the year that has just closed. The need of a rectory is felt, but the price of building at present seems almost forbidding.

St. James', Prospect Park, and St. Luke's, Eddystone, are both showing the faithful and efficient work of the Rev. E. W. Warren, while the Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, and St. Giles', Stonehurst, are advancing to meet the growing population. The latter Mission has entered its unfinished but commodious parish building.

St. Mark's, Honeybrook, is still fortunate in having as its leader such an expert in rural work as the Rev. Mr. Holcombe.

At Kennett Square there has been quite a revival of work under the rectorship of the Rev. Mr. Spalding. He has around him a most affectionate people and they have in him a "faithful and true pastor."

The Ascension, Parkesburg, has still the advantage of the services of The Rev. A. A. Lamb and under his ministrations is faithfully feeding and folding the flock.

St. Luke's, Chadds Ford, has shown some additional life during the past year. It is ministered to by our faithful rector of St. John's, Concord, The Rev. Mr. Sanford.

St. John's, Essington, has been turned over to the Diocese and we now have entire direction of the work. The Rev. Mr. Eder of Ridley Park has greatly developed the work since he has had full charge. The Sunday School has doubled in size and the congregations have also doubled. The contributions have overrun the numerical increase of the congregation and the keenest interest is manifested by the surrounding population. The outlook is extremely cheering.

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The Dean's Report

There has been no change in the missionary situation in West Philadelphia; the same two Missions reported last year maintain their work in the face of their problems, and hold their own despite the movement of population, which has become a serious matter for practically all the other parishes as well.

The great influx of negroes into West Philadelphia in the last two years is the most interesting phase of this question. Foreign-born peoples are also comingin to this section in increasing numbers.

The Wynnefield section is at present being cared for by the rectors of St. James', Hestonville, and St. Asaph's, Bala.

THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Dean's Report

The work in the Convocation of South Philadelphia remains practically stationary during the years.

There has been a large influx of colored people into Philadelphia from the South, large numbers of these settling in South Philadelphia.

The Convocation employs a colored woman to visit among the unattached colored people, with the hope that some of them may be brought into relationship with one of our churches or chapels. This woman is doing excellent work.

The Convocation also employs a woman worker among the Italians. She also is doing most excellent work.

A movement is on foot looking to a possible removal of the Chapel of the Transfiguration on Stonehouse Lane to a point further north where the population is greater.

There is also a committee appointed to consider the feasibility of establishing a mission in the southeastern section of the Convocation.

The Chapel of the Transfiguration is going forward well under the leadership of the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry.

L'Emmanuello has been under the direct supervision of Archdeacon White during a large part of this past year, due to the absence in Italy of the Rev. Thomas Della Cioppa.

This church should be sold and new work established at a point further south and west, in or near the center of the Italian population.

The French Church has had a new birth in interest and strength. Dr. Malan is now living in the upper part of the parish house, which has been made into an apartment. The work feels the impetus of the closer attention which he is able to give it than was possible when he lived across the river in New Jersey.

The social and housing conditions of many sections of South Philadelphia continue very bad indeed. There seems little or nothing that anyone is doing to better these conditions. In fact, they grow worse as the colored people continue to pour in. Some one has said recently that "no city is better than its slums". If that be true, Philadelphia is in a bad way.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

THE DEAN'S REPORT

The Convocation of North Philadelphia is well organized with an Executive Board which functions through committees on Missions, Social Service, Education, Finance, and Publicity. This board acts as a council of advice to the Dean, and decides on important questions between the meetings of the Convocation.

We are still under obligation to restore the $4000 advanced by the Executive Council for the completion of St. Nathanael's, but we are glad to report that $1300 of this amount has been returned during the past year, representing special gifts from a few of the parishes in the Convocation. After years of steady growth under the Rev. George R. Miller, St. Nathanael's has become an independent parish, and was admitted at the last Diocesan Convention. The new transept was completed since our last report, and a fine organ has been installed.

Another notable achievement was the payment of the entire debt on St. Augustine's Mission for colored people, and the consecration of the church building on Whitsunday by Bishop Rhinelander. The Rev. Henry S. McDuffey is well known throughout the Diocese, and we rejoice with him on the success of his faithful labours.

St. George's, Richmond, is one of the outstanding missions of the Church. The beautiful buildings are monuments to the ministry of the Rev. A. J. Arkin, but even greater are the things which are not seen and are eternal. Due to the Rev. Mr. Arkin's foresight and zeal, the whole neighborhood has been redeemed and beautified, and the work goes on with increasing usefulness.

During the past year St. George's, Venango, has been under the care of the Rev. A. J. Kilpatrick. It is a very difficult work, with great strategic importance. The time has come when something substantial must be done for this mission. The future depends on our grasp of the opportunity. We now have the promise of an emergency fund of $2000 to be expended on the chapel this summer for repairs, painting, and a new heating plant. A fund has also been started for a parish hall where the Sunday School and others meetings can be held. Such a building would also be a centre of social life for the community, and we look forward to this improvement in the near future.

St. Ambrose's Mission, under the Rev. Frederick B. Halsey, has done notable work. The chapel is a center of great activity, with a large congregation and all kinds of social and religious work. Here also there is great need for a parish building, and we are holding several properties looking forward to this expansion. Is there not someone in this great Diocese who would erect such a building—perhaps as a memorial—and help to win Kensington for Christ and His Church?

The Church of the Messiah, the Rev. Charles L. Fulforth, Rector, is the only parish in the Convocation receiving financial aid from the Diocese. The problem of this church is one that confronts many other parishes, due to changed conditions and shifting populations. With patient faith and loyalty we believe that some adjustment will be made to enable this old parish to become a centre of new usefulness.

The work of the Hebrew Christian Synagogue is being carried on with renewed success under Mr. John Solomon assisted by Miss Ormsby, and includes the Church services, Sunday and Summer Vacation Schools, English classes, house to house visitation, and social service. Many people are deeply interested in this mission, and the results are most promising.

All Souls' Church for the Deaf is probably the most unique work in the Diocese, and the only congregation of its kind in Philadelphia. While not directly under the Convocation, it is in close touch with us. We ask that more interest be shown in these people, and would commend the report of the Commission on this work. The services in the sign language are very impressive, and meet a great need. Rev. Warren M. Smaltz, ordained last year, is in charge, and is keeping up the fine traditions established by the faithful rectors who preceded him.

Our report would not be complete without mention of the Galilee Mission, which is known far and wide for its wonderful service to those who need the uplifting and saving power of Christ. Here religion touches human life as our Lord touched it, and He is still saying to the unfortunate, "I will, be thou clean—Rise and walk, for thy sins are forgiven thee."

The fact that in our care is one of the greatest industrial districts in the world, is a real challenge to our faith and zeal, and its pressing needs are ever before us. A large part of the work among the foreign-born is located in this section of the Diocese. The report of the Archdeacon will call attention to this opportunity, but we emphasize the necessity to care for this work in a larger way, or we will fail in the critical time when the future is at stake.

An excellent work is being done among the Poles at the old Church of the Advent, under the Rev. J. H. Pienionzek, but the most immediate need is for suitable accommodations for the Polish congregation, which for the past five years has been housed in the parish house of St. George's, Richmond, under the Rev. J. B. Panfil. Here is a parochial school with over one hundred pupils and a congregation which crowds the building for the Sunday worship. When we are assured that this congregation would become self-supporting and an asset to the whole Church, we should expect the Diocese in some way to provide a church building. We can therefore appeal for this object with all confidence.

The same can be said for the Italian Mission of St. Mary of the Annunciation, under the Rev. Silvio G. Biagini. If the two properties adjoining the present chapel can be secured, provision will be made for future needs, and it is most important that this be done as soon as possible. In another section of the Italian quarter a social work for the children is carried on with a capacity attendance, and this we hope can be enlarged. During the past year these missions have become more closely affiliated with the Convocation, and the Archdeacon and Dean are working in perfect accord.

In the Convocation of North Philadelphia are some of our greatest institutions, including the Episcopal Hospital, The Sheltering Arms, the Seaman's Church Institute, Kensington Boys' Club, and St. John's Settlement House.

Under the leadership of Miss Laura Bell, the Woman's Aid is rendering most efficient help, not only by large gifts of money, but by personal interest. The meetings are largely attended, and the Convocation suppers followed by the evening conference, are an inspiration to all who attend. Last year the Woman's Aid assisted in the completion of St. Nathanael's. This year it is proposed to work for the new parish hall at St. George's, Venango. We are very grateful to Mr. Casper W. Haines for the use of his beautiful and historic place "Wyck" in Germantown, for the annual lawn fête, and to all who worked so faithfully for the success of this undertaking.

Last year at Whitsuntide a great united missionary service for our Convocation was held at the Church of the Incarnation, when Bishop Gailor preached the sermon, and we expect to make this service an annual event.

§ About.

Diocesan funds for the support of work among the foreign-born are reported in the budget for racial work.

Note: Galilee Mission also reports services every night in the year, 38 celebrations of the Holy Communion, 81 sermons, 240 addresses to 12,216 men, and 130 professed conversions.

Assisting in the work are representatives from the Church of the Saviour, St. Marys', Ardmore, St. Mathew's, St. Simions', St. Bartholomew, and Holy Trinity.

Also assisting in the services are choirs from 3 Presbyterian churches, 1 Lutheran, and 1 Reformed Episcopal. The Mission is supported by the Diocese, the Welfare Federation, and the sale of beds, meals, etc. Being a Rescue Mission there is no communcants list and no Sunday School.

Note: All Souls Church for the Deaf. There is no Sunday School as the Mission is composed of adults only, but there is a large Bible Class. The women raised $500.00 for painting, and the men are doing the work on both interior and exterior without pay. Numerous other repairs have been made by members of the Mission. (See report of Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf).

THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The Dean's Report

Among the matters of importance in the Convocation this year may be mentioned first, the completion of the community parish house at Morrisville. This building is now in use and ministers to the needs of many who are not members of our Church. Through our Commission on Social Service many in the Diocese have become interested in this expression of the possibility of Christian union on the basis, not necessarily of opinion, but of common purpose.

Of no less importance is the completion of the first story of the parish house for St. Barnabas', Germantown. This provides for some of the wants of the people; fifteen thousand dollars in addition is required to complete the second story, containing the main auditorium, greatly needed in the work of the Mission. The people of St. Barnabas' have quite convinced us that, under the able and energetic leadership of their minister, they will use wisely this large expenditure.

The parish house for St. Gabriel's is somewhat nearer realization than last year; at least the fund is growing. Bids have been asked of contractors for the first story and it is probable that work on this first section will be commenced in the spring. Such a house would be a great aid in the social life of this growing community.

The Country Centre Mission with its ten stations about Wrightstown more than justifies the regrouping made about four years ago. The County Council meetings held each month have been well attended by clergy and laity and have contributed considerably to the life of the group. For the retreats at Wrightstown invitations have been extended to all in the Diocese and many have availed themselves of the privilege. These retreats will soon be better known and should have a real influence on the life of the Diocese.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Dean's Report

We have first to report the sudden death, on November 8, 1923, of the Rev. J. Kennedy Moorhouse, for five years Dean of the Convocation. Mr. Moorhouse had presided at the fall meeting of Convocation just sixteen days before his death; in fact, this was the last time he was able to attend to any of his duties, his collapse occurring shortly after, so that news of his serious illness came as a great shock to those who had met with him such a short time before. The tribute drawn up by the clergy of the Convocation follows and indicates the affection with which he was universally regarded and the deep appreciation of the splendid service he rendered to the Convocation and its missions, often, we now know, when his physical resources were hardly equal to the additional strain placed upon them by these demands:

Tribute to the Memory of J. Kennedy Moorhouse, Dean

"The Convocation of Norristown mourns the loss of its able Dean, the Reverend J. Kennedy Moorhouse, who has directed its missionary work with wisdom and zeal, ministered to its missions and parishes with sympathetic understanding, and strengthened and developed every department of its work.

"The members of the Convocation have lost a friend whose devotion never faltered and whose strength was spent without stint on their behalf. Gentle and courteous to all whom he met, he preached by deed as well as by word the Gospel of Love.

"His parish was the whole community in which he served in the spirit of his divine Master. His influence will long endure and the memory of him will sweeten life for many a soul and be the inspiration of many more in the years to come. We mourn the loss of a loving friend, but we rejoice in the victory won through our Lord, Jesus Christ.

"May the blessed Lord, in Whom he believed and to Whose service he devoted all his energies and from Whom he derived his inspiration, bless his sorrowing wife and children and grant to them the comfort and peace which he sought for so many others in the hour of their bereavement."

The report of the present Dean, elected at a special meeting of the Convocation assembled at the Church House, January 7th, must be based largely upon general knowledge and information gleaned from the reports of the missionaries, rather than upon any special knowledge of the needs or the opportunities of the Convocation.

The missions are all under the care of the same missionaries as a year ago.

The Rev. George W. Lamb, Missionary in charge of the two missions at Hatboro and Willow Grove, reports very substantial progress at both these places. The missionary's report shows a decrease of $100 in the amount of help received from Convocation for Advent, Hatboro, and a decrease of $200 in the amount received for St. Anne's, Willow Grove. There has been a decided increase in the size of the Sunday School at Willow Grove, where the mission ministers to a rapidly growing suburban population. In both of these places parish houses are urgently needed. Special note should be made of the splendid work of the Woman's Auxiliary at the Advent Mission, Hatboro. A recent report shows this loyal band of women to have raised over $800, of which some $530 was given towards the support of the Mission and over $80 was contributed towards the work of fifteen different mission fields or undertakings. A truly creditable record.

The Rev. William Roberts reports for Epiphany Mission, Royersford, that the work there has been steadily performed under conditions that continue to be rather discouraging. The community is one which does not change greatly from year to year and losses by removal are difficult to replace. A considerable outlying district is ministered to by the missionary in addition to the families residing in Royersford and Spring City.

The Rev. William J. Wilkie has continued in charge of Holy Trinity Mission, Lansdale, in conection with his work at Emmanuel Mission, Quakertown, in the Germantown Convocation. Mr. Wilkie's report shows a splendid year with 14 Confirmations and over $3000 contributed by the people of the mission.

Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, has been served during the past year by Mr. George H. Randall, who has faithfully continued his work there as volunteer Lay Reader. The mission ministers to a scattered and sparsely settled region, but is a great blessing to those whom it serves. The missionary's report shows an increase in communicants, Sunday School scholars and contributions as compared with the previous year.

It is hoped to start the building for our work at Glenside early in the year. There is $7000 on hand and the Woman's Aid has pledged $1200 additional. The building will probably cost about $20,000. The Rev. George Copeland, who is in charge of this newest work of our Convocation, in connection with the parish of St. Peter's, Weldon, is very enthusiastic about the prospects for building up a strong, useful work in this rapidly growing and thickly populated suburban section.
